MARCH 2017

No greater love...

The picture says it all. Karen Jeric crafted this beautiful bouquet to decorate the sanctuary for our Sunday services in February. Carefully selected flowers in various hues of red and pink surrounded a heart; all of which symbolized the love we typically associate with the month of February and Valentine’s Day. But it took the artful eye of June Angle to photograph the bouquet at just the right angle (pun intended!); capturing the image of the cross within the heart, calling to mind the words of Christ, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). What a perfect representation of the love of Christ, love that went all the way to Calvary; the love that we are called to reflect on throughout this season of Lent.

BE A WITNESS FOR ONENESS!

In July, the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) will gather as ONE for the 2017 General Assembly in Indianapolis. Thousands of Disciples will gather from across the United States and Canada to demonstrate our unity in service to Christ. There will be inspiring messages delivered, the new General Minister and President will be elected, results from Mission First! will be shared, all while attendees have an exciting opportunity to participate in a phenomenal learning community. Want to do something else fun? Consider posting a “selfie” on social media with the tag #DOCWeAreOne. Early registration discounts expire April 1, so get registered today for a 20% savings at <http://disciples.org/ga>.

“I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one.” John 17:20-21a, NRSV

A Note from the Pastor:

The Lenten Season has begun – that period in the Liturgical Calendar that goes from Ash Wednesday until Resurrection Sunday. The time when we stop and intentionally reflect on the events that transpired roughly two thousand years ago leading up to the betrayal, arrest, trial, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, the Christ. Recently, several of us journeyed to St. Anselm Catholic Church to see the 40th anniversary performance of Tetelestai, a musical reenactment of Christ’s journey to the cross and beyond. The sights and sounds of that evening evoked a range of emotions that cannot easily be described. Suffice it to say; however, no one can leave an encounter like that without being changed in some way.

During this season of Lent, many will choose to “give up” something, symbolizing the ultimate sacrifice that Christ made by giving up His life for us. Still others will “take on” something as they reflect on just what it meant for Christ to take on the punishment for our sins. But, whether you choose to give up something or to take on something, may this Lenten Season bring you a renewed sense of God’s presence. May you feel God’s peace which surpasses all understanding. And may you witness first-hand God’s unconditional love at work in your life.

May each of you be blessed and encouraged on this journey!

Your Pastor and friend,

Rev. Heidi

HOLY HUMOR (Part Two)

A Sunday School teacher began her lesson with a question, “Boys and girls, what do we know about God?”

A hand shot up in the air. “He is an artist!” said the kindergarten boy.

“Really? How do you know?” the teacher asked.

“You know - Our Father, who does art in Heaven...”

=====

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him. Finally, the attendant motioned him toward a vacant pump.

“Reverend,” said the young man, “I’m so sorry about the delay. It seems as if everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip.”

The minister chuckled, “I know what you mean. It’s the same in my business.”

=====

People want the front of the bus, the back of the church, and the center of attention.

=====

Last, but not least, a great one:

The minister was preoccupied with thoughts of how he was going to ask the congregation to come up with more money than they were expecting for repairs to the church building. Therefore, he was annoyed to find that the regular organist was sick and a substitute had been brought in at the last minute. The substitute wanted to know what to play.

“Here’s a copy of the service,” he said impatiently. “But, you’ll have to think of something to play after I make the announcement about the finances.”

During the service, the minister paused and said, “Brothers and Sisters, we are in great difficulty; the roof repairs cost twice as much as we expected and we need $4,000 more. Any of you who can pledge $100 or more, please stand up.”

At that moment, the substitute organist played “The Star Spangled Banner.”

And that is how the substitute became the regular organist!
