The Pastor's Letter

"Standing in the Gap"

Have you ever thought about what it means to stand in the gap?

I have given this a lot of thought here recently. Why? Because there are times when God calls us to stand in the gap and it is always when we least expect it. All of us at Parkview have had Pastor Greg and Karen Magruder in our thoughts and prayers. While Pastor Greg is healing the reality is that the ministry of the church continues.

I feel so unqualified and at the same time honored to stand in the gap for Pastor Greg. I have only been at Parkview part time for a year, and full time for 3 months. In my short time of hanging out with Pastor Greg I am reminded of what a great example he has been for me. Believe it or not the local church at times is not always an easy place to be at. Pastor Greg always shows compassion in a Godly manner and I am very blessed to be under his leadership. In my 3 months I never imagined being behind the pulpit except for waving my hands around and singing a song. So I am constantly reminded just how small I am in the big picture.

At some point all of this will be in our past and Parkview will be back to normal. Thank you Parkview members for your patience and understanding but mostly for putting up with me. My prayer is when we all are called to stand in the gap our answer will always be yes! May we always remember that all we have to be is faithful, God will take care of the rest.

Thank you Pastor Greg for allowing me to enhance what God has called you to do. When you return it is party on! Amen! (is that even biblical?) You know what I mean. Love ya Parkview!
