March 5, 2017 – Pastor Leif Holmes

Title: What's in a name?

Text: John 6:16-21, 8:23-30, 56-59, 18:4-6

Questions to consider:

READ JOHN 6:16-21 AND JUDGES 6:22-24

1. How are the reactions of Jesus' disciples and Gideon's reaction similar?

Can you think of other examples in the Bible where people reacted similarly to God's presence?

Why do they react this way?

What can you apply from these verses as well as others like Ecclesiastes 5:2?

2. Yahweh-Shalom, "The LORD is peace"

What is the significance of the capitalization of LORD in Judges 6:24?

*Why did Gideon build an altar?
Why did he name it?*

How can we grow to know God as Yahweh-Shalom?

Don't start by praying for deliverance, pray for

Don't start by praying for answers, pray for

READ JOHN 8:23-30, 56-59

3. Note three separate times Jesus uses "I AM" statements (vv. 24, 28, 58)

In each instance, what is He claiming?

*How does John 3:16 fit in with what Jesus is claiming?
What is different/unique about Jesus as God's only "begotten" Son?*

What is Jesus' point in each one of these verses?

*John 8:24
John 8:28
John 8:58*

READ JOHN 18:4-6

4. Why did the people who came to arrest Jesus all draw back and fall to the ground?

How do you think Judas felt at this moment?
How about the other disciples?

5. Why is it ironic that "Jesus fully realized all that was going to happen to Him . . . so he stepped forward to meet them?"

*"And remember, it is a message to obey, not just to listen to. So don't fool yourselves."
James 1:22*
