Title: Paradise Lost

Text: Numbers 20

THE BIG IDEA: To whom much is given much is required

To Consider:

NUMBERS 16 (Korah's rebellion)

Instead of God's punishment of Korah and his followers resulting in repentance, how did the people respond?

- How do you explain this?
- Why might the people have felt entitled?
- Do you feel people in our society have an entitlement mentality? Why or why not? What about Christ-followers?
- What are ways to address an entitlement mentality?

When there is gossip, slander or division among God's people what is that a sign of?

(See 1 Cor. 3:3, Hebrews 5:12-14)

- How did Moses and Aaron react to the people's rebellion? (Numbers 20:2-5)
- What can we learn from this?

NUMBERS 20:6-13

How did Moses disobey God's explicit instructions?

- Why did he do this?
- Why was this such a "big deal?"

Do the consequences of Moses' disobedience seem harsh or unfair? Why or why not?

- "To whom much is given much is required." – Luke 12:48
 - How does this verse apply to Moses?
 - How does it apply to you?
- ANYONE can fall ANYTIME
 - What other examples from the Bible do we see people "mature" in the faith fall?
 - 2 Samuel 11:1
 - 2 Chronicles 26:16
 - 1 Kings 11:4
 - 2 Chronicles 32:35
 - How can we guard against this?

NOTES:

"And remember, it is a message to obey, not just to listen to.
So don't fool yourselves."
James 1:22
