Baby Bottle Benefit for A Door of Hope, now through June 1

Melissa visited our Wilmington ADOH Center for an ultrasound last year. She was struggling to determine her path forward after discovering she was pregnant. Here's what Melissa had to say about her experience:

"My experience going in for an ultrasound was supportive. I appreciate that they provide such a safe environment for women who may be in challenging situations. They met me with love and understanding, regardless of the choice I was making."

Melissa chose to have her baby and now participates in our parenting and material support program.

"I won't sell you a fairytale. Things aren't perfect," says Melissa, "but we have what we need and more. We have many blessings to count, and A Door of Hope is one of them. Thank you for all that you have done for us."

See your insert for information on how you can give to enable A Door of Hope to continue meeting the needs of their precious clients.

June Mission Prayer Meeting, 5/29

Thursday, May 29 10:00 am - 11:00 am

"Why should I come to the Mission Prayer Meetings?"

- *our missionaries are counting on us to be lifting them up before God
- * we have good intentions but may forget to pray for them on our own
- *to be more familiar with the missionaries & organizations our offerings are supporting
- *so we see the monthly updates to know how things are going, how we can specifically pray for and encourage them
- *praying together strengthens all of us

God's Kingdom Building: Rick & Wendy Gray, serving with International Friendships of DE

"I can't begin to tell you how Easter dinner with our internationals was an answer to prayer!" wrote one American hostess. During the holiday meal she discovered that one of her global guests works across the hall from her. "I've been praying to meet someone in that office (who are all from another country), and never in my dreams anticipated one showing up in my living room!" Such was the happy providence reported by one of 14 families from 8 local churches who hosted ~50 internationals from 16 nations for Easter Dinner

IFD's new intern, Paul Yu, has befriended several South American students. And one of them is quite receptive to the gospel. The young man has been reading the Bible on his own, and told Paul that he feels very close to having his ultimate questions in life being answered. However, recently he confessed his reluctance to submit a specific area of his life to the lordship of Christ. Now he must count the cost involved with becoming a follower of Jesus.

For Praise and Prayer

- * Praise the Lord for blessing IFD's Easter Dinners for UD Internationals event!
- * Pray the American hostess' new friendship will open a door for the good news.
- * Praise for the South American student who is reading the Bible on his own!
- * Pray he and others will see Jesus is worth whatever the cost is to follow him.
- * Praise God for drawing many to Dinner & Discussion and gospel interactions!
- * Praise our Provider for IFD's intern, Paul Yu, and all our wonderful volunteers

Love God * Love Neighbor * Serve Sacrificially
