TEXT: Matthew 26:20-27

INTRODUCTION: (April 5, 2020)

In partaking of the blood of the New Covenant, it is important that we understand the full scope of communion in our lives. I want to talk about five great principles of communion.

These principles are outlined here:

1. Communion is a celebration of _____.
2. Communion is a proclamation of _____.
3. Communion is a declaration of _____.
4. Communion is an examination of _____.
5. Communion is a reception of _____.

CONCLUSION:

Let’s keep our hearts centered on the true meaning of the communion of the Lord – The blood of a new and everlasting Covenant; the blood of Jesus is a celebration of victory over the devil, power over sin, and peace in our hearts!
