We are taking the Good News message around the world so that lives will be transformed and laborers will be equipped for service and to retain the harvest. We are developing strategic international partnerships to plant new Bible schools in order to train pastors and leaders for the Lord's redemptive work. We are delivering our evangelism and discipleship training materials to people groups who might never have heard the saving message of Jesus. To date, over 2,000,000 people have come to Christ as the result of Global University's evangelism materials.

Our university provides courses in multiple languages and delivers them in print, on the Internet and via mobile devices to students through the university's four distinct schools: School of Evangelism and Discipleship, Berean School of the Bible, Undergraduate School of Bible and Theology, and Graduate School of Theology.

"Look at the fields. They are ripe for harvest!" It is this compelling mandate proclaimed in John 4:35 that motivates us to take the gospel message around the world. To accomplish this task, we need your help. Click here to read more about this exciting opportunity to plant seeds for the harvest.
