

Rev. Sharon D. Cunningham
118 Autumn Wind Dr.
Madison, AL 35758
kbscunningham@knology.net

Statement: Rev. Sharon D. Cunningham is motivated to do what God has called her to do. She has the passion to teach and preach the word of God, to aid those in need, and understand the importance of making disciples of men.

Objective: Committed to do the work that God provides in leading His people, with dedication and humility unto God. Understanding the importance of loyalty and commitment to God for those I am blessed to Pastor.

Summary: Rev. Sharon Cunningham is an innovator, and is efficient at what she does. I have the ability to facilitate, lead, teach and preach. I am efficient and make every effort to be create an environment of love, togetherness and growth as God leads.

Ministry Experience: Reverend Sharon D. Cunningham currently resides in Madison, Alabama.

- Licensed to preach the Gospel in February 2007
- Ordained in June 2011.
- Served has served as a Youth Pastor for more than 2 years in 2010-2012.
- Currently a member of Progressive Union Missionary Baptist Church in Huntsville AL, where she serves as an Associate Minister, and where she is given the opportunity by the Pastor to preach and teach the word of God.
- Served as a Facilitator (Training the Trainer) for Adult Sunday School teachers in 2014-2015.
- Serves as a volunteer participant for discussions on spirituality at University of Alabama in Huntsville with the Women's and Genders Studies Program.

Educational Experience:

- Attended College, in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where she was awarded a Degree in Nursing, and is practicing as a Registered Nurse in Huntsville, Alabama.
- Currently continuing her education at Columbia College at Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville AL, where she will receive her Bachelors of Arts/Gen. Studies Degree next year in 2017, and then she has plans to continue towards her goal of achieving her Master's Degree in Theology.