SENIOR PASTOR Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church Tucson, AZ

The Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church (MCMBC) is seeking a Senior Pastor to provide spiritual, pastoral and administrative leadership to equip our church to fulfill its mission and purpose of spreading the gospel to all generations, raising disciples, and restoring God's love to all, as we move into our 116th year of service. Of most importance, MCMBC is praying for a pastor with the call and gifts of preaching, pastoring, strong communication skills with emphasis on listening and the ability to share ideals and direction.

The commensurate salary for the Senior Pastor position plus benefits will be based on the experience, background and education of the successful applicant. To apply for the position of Senior Pastor, please request an application packet at the email address listed below.

Our Pastoral Search Committee will review your application expeditiously, communicate with you about your candidacy as appropriate, and update you at key junctures about our progress in reviewing your application. If you have questions, you may contact the Pulpit Search Committee via, Elder Derek Hicks at (520-241-3445) or Tanisha Price-Johnson at (520) 250-7306).

Please return the application and all requested information or additional correspondence by mail to the PO Box or electronically to the mail addresses listed below.
