Community Baptist Church, Bayside, New York

Position Vacancy: Pastor and Teacher

The pastoral search committee is accepting resumes for the position of Pastor of the Community Baptist Church, Bayside, New York. We seek a person who has a vision to build and help us grow. The candidate must demonstrate the qualities of a Pastor described in 1 Timothy 3:1-7. The applicant must be an ordained Baptist Minister with at least five years of pastoral leadership experience. We seek a Pastor who is a dynamic preacher and wise counselor who as a result of sound biblical and theological training will be able to build on a foundation of over 80 years of ministry in Bayside. The need is to revitalize the present congregation and strengthen and equip it to advance the gospel in Bayside and beyond. We seek a Pastor with a missionary heart and strong family and community values. The Pastor must have the organizational and administrative skills necessary to maintain a system of governance based on openness and transparency, where responsibility and accountability will be paramount in all areas of church operations.

We need a leader with the skills necessary to attract and retain a varied membership. We believe that this leader will need the teaching skills required to equip the leadership and laity alike to meet the exciting challenges of the 21st century. We anticipate working with a leader who is patient, kind and comfortable working collaboratively with all membership. This includes acknowledging and respecting the giftedness of all believers attending C.B.C. and promoting these gifts in the work of God and our church. We seek a leader who is reflective and flexible in providing leadership in worship, Sunday school and Bible study. The Pastor must be a person of the highest integrity, who is able to set necessary boundaries for the leadership, membership and self.

Community Baptist Church is located in a beautiful section of northeast Queens known as Bayside. C.B.C. is part of a residential community of home owners with outstanding schools, varied businesses, parks and institutions.
