Founded in 1970, St John Baptist Church is a predominately African-American church with a membership of nearly 1,700 active members and weekly attendees. Located in Columbia, Maryland, St John Baptist Church is a congregation rich in heritage, whose mission is to be a 'spiritual center' that reaches people for Christ, and builds and equips believers to be Christ-like at all times.

Led by Rev. Dr. Robert A.F. Turner, St John Baptist Church is known throughout its community for its dynamic services, creative approach to evangelism, and outreach, as well as its commitment to young families and children through transformative programs. With three different weekend worship services, each with its own style, St John Baptist Church excels at being a multi-generational church and is attractive to people from different backgrounds and religious denominations.

St John Baptist Church is seeking an Executive Pastor who will work under the direction of the Senior Pastor in facilitating the overall vision and mission of the church. The successful candidate will ensure that the operational elements of the church are efficiently and effectively managed and that the staff and ministries are all experiencing a sense of community, with each maximizing the use of their individual gifts to advance the Kingdom of God.

Consistently ranked in the top ten of CNN Money's Best Places To Live In America, Columbia, Maryland, is the second most populous community in Maryland. Located just 20 miles outside of Baltimore, over 170,000 people call Columbia home, with 92% employed with white-collar jobs. Columbia is a town of professionals, managers, sales, and office workers, and although not a huge town, it continues to attract young singles in their 20's and 30's, as well as upwardly-mobile career starters.
