PASTORAL OPENING

First Trinity Missionary Baptist Church is seeking God's choice in a pastor. Therefore, a candidate must be a man after God's own heart (1Sam.13:14). The congregation is mostly middle age to elderly. Therefore, we are prayerfully seeking someone who has a special love for young people and will draw and nurture them also. First Trinity Missionary Baptist Church was previously pastored by the late Rev. Dr. F.O. Hockenhull and he was truly a lover of young people.

BRIEF CHURCH HISTORY:

First Trinity Missionary Baptist Church was established in 1956. In the fifty-six years of the church's existence there were only three pastors and Rev. Dr. F.O. Hockenhull was the pastor for the past forty-three years. The size of the congregation is estimated to be between two hundred fifty and three hundred members. The church is located at the south end of the down town area of the city.
