

PASTORAL VACANCY

Corinthian Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa, is searching for a full-time pastor. We serve a mid size congregation of mostly African American families. Our congregation is committed to a wide variety of ministries, including Youth Praise Dance, Steppers, Young Adult Ministry, Church Drama Troupe, Prime Timers, Health Clinic, Technology Center, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Discipleship Ministry, Christmas Angel Tree, Food Baskets and Tutoring Ministry.

Corinthian built a new edifice in 1972; constructed Corinthian Gardens, a 75-unit home for elderly and handicapped in 1988; remodeled and expanded the sanctuary; and added a new Family Life Center in 1996. Corinthian has had only 9 pastors in its 114 years. The pastor God is leading us to call is a visionary; has outstanding faith in God and a commitment to Christian service. The candidate should demonstrate preaching and teaching skills; proven leadership skills, particularly with African American youth; integrity and high moral standards; and a love for congregational care.

Required Education: Bachelor's degree from a theological seminary, divinity school, or accredited post-secondary institution.

Desired Education: Masters or Doctorate of Theology Degree or Divinity Degree or equivalent experience.

If you feel God is leading you to accept this challenge, please send us your resume by May 1, 2013.

Deacon Robert Craddock
Pulpit Committee Chairman
Corinthian Baptist Church
814 School Street
Des Moines, Iowa 50309
515 243-4073
Fax: 515 284-5448