

★ Let's go camping! ★

★ May 16-18th, 2014 ★

at Dos Picos State Park in Ramona

←————→
RBTS is inviting you to spend a weekend retreat nearby in Ramona. There's hiking, biking, fishing, campfire "marshmallow" roasts, potluck dinner, a camp-style breakfast, fun, fellowship, and a Saturday night family-style potluck & devotions in the camp pavilion (directly in the middle of our site). ★

We may even have a visit from the Ranger and a few "animal friends". We reserve almost the entire camping spot cul-de-sac so everyone is close by. Water, electrical hookups, and restrooms/showers are available. You can bring your RV or tent sleeper. The fee for the weekend is $65/family for the spot, which includes a pancake, eggs, and bacon breakfast. You can even join us for one night or just for a day. Call the Park Ranger for more information on day passes (760) 789-2220.

Contact Chuck Denton for more information

760-431-8990 to reserve a spot since space is limited!
