Classroom "Project Auction" June 11th

At our "Kindergarten Graduation & Farewell Performance" we will auction off the following classroom projects created by your children.

Mrs. Sam's class painted and decorated a bench with a bible verse from the book of Deuteronomy [11:18-20]. In addition to the bench a children's bible will be included as a memento of the time spent in the two year old class.

Mrs. Jenny's class is decorating a child's play kitchen. "God's Bountiful Blessings Soup Kitchen" is an entertainment center turned in to a play kitchen. Each child will help paint and be able to put their fingerprints on the project. It will include scripture verses and picture for a personal touch.

Mrs. Tonya's class has made a Hand Print Painted Platter, that showcases each of her students hand prints.

Mrs. Gwenna's class Quilt was created by individual student artwork and will be suitable for hanging.

Mrs. Crystal's class has created ABC Art Work entitled "For the Word of God is living and active..."-Hebrews

4:12. This year, Mrs. Crystals' class has learned that listening to God's word means trusting & believing that the word of God is alive and active all around us and that it will touch us if we let it. As it touches us, we become a part of His word as we show our belief and understanding through our words and actions.

Ms. Tanika's class is so excited to share the canvas artwork grouped together as a collage. The piece, "Hands On" will represent one of the children's favorite songs they learned in class, which speaks about the wonderful creations God has created.

Mrs. Mack's class: The kindergarten class is doing a project dubbed "Heart & Hands". Using a painter's canvas, there will be a heart being held by a pair of hands in the center, along with a related saying. Each student will place their own handprints with colored paint and sign their handprint. Our intent is to show how all the students are individual, yet are one shared caring heart.

Mr. Pennington's class will build and decoupage a Puppet Stage with photos of the children.

Miss Digges 3rd-4th grade class created Super Hero Artwork. The quote in the poster is rich in symbolism, representing not just the fact that each person has significance, but unique gifts, and the power to do whatever they set their mind to. It also reminds us, as Jayden said, "God lives in each of us. He is our Superhero." Superman is painted by hundreds of individual fingerprints of all the students. The phrase "There's a hero in all of us" was a combined effort, each letter written by a different student. And finally, the most memorable piece, in the upper right corner, in which students designed their own masks for the superhero they have been all year. Ask them - they know who they are!

Mr. Mack's class has created a project, entitled "Window to the Future" consisting of hand sketched artwork by each student which represents their future career desire. The art has been placed on a student painted table, and covered with a sheet of plexi-glass.
