Adventurous Life Marriage Retreat Treat your spouse to an adventurous weekend away that will be fun, challenging, and unforgettable. Spend 2 nights and 2 days in a gorgeous home at the breathtaking Oregon

Coast focusing on your marriage. You will be pampered, including a cook to prepare all your meals, while being challenged with fun and reflective experiences. You will "retreat" with up to 6 other couples, however, the majority of the activities will be done with just you and your spouse. The goal of the retreat is to grow to deeper levels of intimacy and joy in your marriage. As a couple, you will engage with Adventurous Life coaches that will help you to be more intentional in creating clarity and growth throughout this experience. The price is per couple and all-inclusive; activities, lodging, prepared meals, and coaching sessions.

Adventurous Life Parenting Retreat Take a two-day break away from the chaos of activities, music concerts, practices, and games. Focus on how you want to raise your kids without them there to distract you. You will have a blast and then take strategic breaks throughout the activities to reflect on your parenting style, vision for your children and to develop a plan of action. You will be "retreating" with up to 9 other couples or single parents and will have opportunities to build community as we all work to grow in this challenging and wonderful adventure called parenting. If you are a single parent, we encourage you to bring a friend or family member along with you to discuss and reflect with (unmarried couples will be given separate tents). If you do not have kids yet, this is an excellent time to start thinking through how you want to raise your kids someday! You will also engage in coaching conversations with an Adventurous Life coach that will help you to be intentional about planning and reflecting on your parenting. The price is per couple and all-inclusive; activities, lodging, prepared meals, and coaching sessions.

There is no question that parenting is already an adventure. We would love for you to join us for an exciting 2 days / 2 nights parenting retreat that will support you on your adventure as parents. You will white-water raft for part of a day on the upper Clackamas River and participate in other activities throughout the retreat, all designed to guide you as you develop or re-evaluate your vision for raising your children.

Part roughing it, part being waited on, and a whole lot of encouragement and fun as we camp "pampered" right next to the Collawash River in the Mt. Hood National Forest. You will not be given the answers or advice, but you will be inspired, challenged, and encouraged as you are led through a variety of experiences. You will adventure with other parents, but with plenty of personal reflection time to think about how to effectively and efficiently live out this adventure of parenting.

Betrayal Redeemed, A Journey from Hurt to Hope is a one-day workshop for women who have been betrayed. It is brought to you by professional counselors who have experienced betrayal and know the road to recovery.

Blended & Blessed is the only one-day live event and livestream just for stepfamily couples, single parents, dating couples with kids, and those who care about blended families. With some of today's most trusted and respected experts, you'll be challenged, inspired and encouraged. If you are part of a stepfamily, or know someone who is, this is a can't-miss opportunity!

Engaged Encounter Lay and clergy couples share the joys, troubles, and victories that they have encountered in their marriages. Engaged couples then have opportunities, alone as a couple, to discuss the challenges they will face: such as maintaining open communication and resolving conflicts on issues such as religious differences, money, planning and sex.

Level-Up Your Marriage (aka What's In Your Rearview Mirror) Taking a moment to reflect on your marriage is much like looking in a rearview mirror! There are blissful horizons and memorable sunsets that bring joy to each of your soul. The history of your travels together reminds each couple of progress, excitement and dreams that have been fulfilled. Your journey of marriage may have regrets; ignored detours that could have led to great adventures, and fond celebrations. Often what are seen in reflections are Road Blocks, Construction Zones, Ten-Car Pileups, Bridge Crossings and missed Rest Stops. Stop the hectic drive of family life for a period of refueling, restoration and renewal. With a passion to encourage marriages, join Gil and Brenda Stuart as they share about hazards, rest stops and a ten-car pileup! You will laugh, be challenged and encouraged. Enjoy this rest stop!

Love and Respect We believe love best motivates a woman and respect most powerfully motivates a man. Research reveals that during marital conflict a husband most often reacts unlovingly when feeling disrespected, and a wife reacts disrespectfully when feeling unloved.
