See You In The Garden by Carol Hebert

Last Friday morning I met a friend for coffee. It was a drizzle dazzle SPRING morning and I was absolutely filled with JOY!!!! My friend commented that she remembered me being filled with the exact same JOY the year before when we met for coffee on a similar early spring morning. I told her for me SPRING is absolutely hands down the BEST season of the year. She said for her fall & winter are the best seasons. She absolutely loved the beautiful, abundant snowy winter we had this year. Isn't it interesting and amazing how God created each of us with our own distinctive loves and passions?

My love for spring is all about the rebirth of life in the garden as flowers start to peek their way out of the ground and trees begin to bud and bloom. This love and passion for gardening has led me down the garden path to St. Michael's gardens. My dream many years ago of a garden club at St. Michael's has come to life! This spring is the beginning of the 3rd year of a growing group of people who help make St. Michael's gardens a beautiful and welcoming entrance for us and for our visitors to enjoy.

This wonderful group of people each help in different ways; some push mulch, some rake leaves, some plant flowers and shrubs, some weed beds, some trim bushes and ground cover, some water flowers, some cut grass, and some offer financial contributions.

Together, as a team, we have become ST. MICHAEL'S GARDEN ANGLES.

I'm filled with joy and gratitude that God planted this little seed of an idea in me and that it's been nurtured and brought to life through each and every St. Michael's Garden Angel. We've made great strides over the past 2 years and I look forward to continuing down this garden path that God has led me.

If one of your distinctive loves and passions is gardening OR if you're just getting started down the garden path, please think about joining our team and become a St. Michael's Garden Angel. There are many ways you can help! If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 312.504.4999 or email me at carol.hebert@sbcglobal.net.

I look forward to seeing you in the garden! HAPPY SPRING!

Food for the Journey: Sunday Morning Formation at 10:05 a.m.

Sunday, April 6

Join us this Sunday for an opportunity to discuss with Randy Lewis his new book No Greatness Without Goodness: How a Father's Love Changed a Company and Sparked a Movement. The book chronicles a personal odyssey of bringing personal faith, experience and values to bear in the culture and aspirations of business in 21st century America. As shown, the book cover features a photo of Randy with his son, Austin; and, as implied in the title, the message of the book is rooted in and grows out of the father-son relationship. There will also be time for book signing.

In the Parish Family

Additions

Josh and Kristin Baudin are overseas and in the process of adopting and bringing home a new sister for their daughter Gia. Josh reports: There are stories to be told but all-in-all it is going extremely well. The family love having folks back home know what is going on and keeping them in prayer. Please do not disseminate any information regarding the case over social media. The family have been warned that sharing information about these cases over social media can be detrimental to the process and even dangerous for those involved (hence no names or location). Please keep the Baudin family in your prayers.

Kara Joy Baker

kbaker@stmichaelsbarrington.org

Welcome Back Youth & Parents,
I pray that your transition back into school and work has been an easy one this week. There is much on the horizon in the world of youth ministry at St. Michael's. It will be a very exciting and busy end to the school year as always. I invite you to be involved as much as you are able, but I also understand that families are being pulled in many directions from now until the end of school.

HELP! Too many youth, a GREAT problem! I need 1-2 adult volunteers to help me chaperon the 4th-8th grade Lock-In Saturday, April 26 which will conclude by attending the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday, April 27.

Please let me know if you are willing to help out! We have 15 4th-8th graders signed up and 3 high school student helpers as well.

Students of Marian and Maria Fadrowski will be playing this Sunday at the 9:00 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services, as well as the 10:45 a.m. service next week.

We are happy to welcome the Gabis String Trio (Tyler, Austin, and Lauren) to our 9:00 a.m. worship service on Palm Sunday.

Looking forward to Holy Week, the choir and music ministry team have prepared some very exciting and beautiful music for Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and The Great Vigil of Easter. We hope that you will all join us at these services.

Then, on Easter Sunday we will welcome back Brandon Villiunas with his brass quartet, and timpanist Paul Ross. This will be their 3rd Easter with us at St. Michael's, and we are always excited when we hear that they are available.

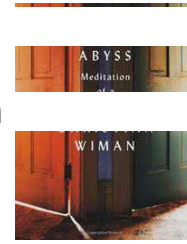

Thanks to all the choir members who spend so much time rehearsing and practicing to bring beautiful music to St. Michael's! I couldn't do it without each of you!

Don't Miss This Conversation

On Wednesday, April 9th at 7:00 p.m., parishioner

Dale Griffith will lead a conversation on My Bright Abyss: Meditation of a Modern Believer by Christian Wiman. This book has been getting rave reviews in publications as far ranging as the New Yorker, the Wall Street Journal and the New Republic. Join us for a conversation exploring this beautifully written provocative work.

A Note from Dale Griffith: Christian Wiman's text is, in his words, much more a mosaic, not a continuous argument or narrative. Therefore, for the sake of our discussion of the text, I have selected a number of what I consider to be highly luminous passages (click here), representative of Wiman's musings on any number of issues related to faith, religion, and language. I trust that among these selections is a passage or two that every person attending the discussion would find particularly relevant for his private and shared reflection.

You're Invited To A Voice Recital

Pictured: David & Kara Joy Baker, Tina Beverly Summerfield

We invite you to join us for a Mother's Day Afternoon Recital on Sunday, May 11 at 3:00 p.m. Sopranos, Tina Beverly Summerfield & Kara Joy Baker will be joined by baritone, David Baker. Selections will include timeless classics of composers such as Mozart, Schubert, Strauss as well as musical theater favorites. All donations will support the St. Cecilia Guild & the Choir Residency at Chichester Cathedral this August.

Lent Madness Update

Oh, the Madness! Oh, the agony! Oh, the joy!

Make your vote count at www.LentMadness.org each weekday of Lent. It's not too soon or too late.

Toweringly inspiring ancestors of our faithful family are being shunted aside, while others inspiring for her or his own reasons are advancing toward the Golden Halo election, yet clear voting patterns are not readily discernible. At least they are not discernible to this LM participant! As this week's Sword is broadcast, J.S. Bach has been voted out, despite the clearly divine voice which inspired his music. Julia Chester Emery, an early and zealous missionary for what would become ECW and its UTO, has been voted up to the Elate Eight. Do the Lent Madness faithful prefer more contemporary saints to older -- even Biblical -- saints? Do LM voters prefer women saints because they tended to emerge as inspiring personages during typically patriarchal eras? Maybe so. Maybe not. Great matchups remain to be decided by popular vote. You may find that discerning which of two eminently worthy saints compels your vote is a wonder-filled Lenten discipline. You may find yourself surprised by which saint you prefer on a given voting day. You may find that this sometimes anarchic, sometimes snarky, often maddening exercise nonetheless reveals glimmers of the Glory of God through how the saints' lives become reflected in LM participation. If you've not participated yet, it's a fine time to try it!

Watch at the Altar of Repose
April 17, 2014 to April 18, 2014

Christians observe a Watch at the Altar of Repose as part of the Holy Week rites in which we remember and re-enact Christ's Passion. The watch recalls a scene in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night before Jesus was crucified: After praying with great anguish, Jesus discovers that the disciples have been sleeping. He admonishes them: "Could you not stay awake with me one hour? (Matt. 26:40).

Our Altar of Repose is set up in our chapel, adjacent to the choir room and sacristy - and also accessible from a north-facing exterior door. The watch begins immediately following the 7:30 p.m. Maundy Thursday service and concludes at 6:30 a.m. on Good Friday morning. Devotional materials will be available. Anyone may take part in the watch, whether or not they have signed up. A sign up poster is located in the narthex (front foyer).

Blessed Are The Peacemakers, For They Shall Be Called People Of God

An update from Jackie Kraus

Say Hello To Our New Little Friend

This church mouse introduced himself to the office staff this week. All's well that ends well...safely captured and brought outside to start a new life on the prairie.

It's almost 5 months (April 15) since fighting broke out in South Sudan in a vicious power struggle. Bishop Joseph is continually thankful for our prayers, which he believes strongly are keeping the situation calm in Renk. Peace talks have broken down and been postponed for another month, but the work of peace building is at work in Renk under his leadership.

Last week, a revival was held for 7 days with 800 youth from many tribes in Renk. Bishop Joseph reports there are 63 tribes in Renk! While fighting continues outside Renk, "God is still faithful with us", he says. The revival brought the youth together to prepare themselves as peacemakers in their communities. Bishop Joseph closed the week long gathering with words of encouragement to go out to their families with the support of Renk Diocese taking this message--"Instead of fighting with guns, fight with prayers." He encouraged them to work together. "Take peace into your homes."

And, so we, by our Covenant of Relationship with Renk, pray for the fighting to end, for the situation to cool down, for the ministry of the youth as peacemakers.

Lord, hear their prayers.

From the Rector The Rev. Patrick Raymond

I do my best every year in Lent and especially as Holy Week approaches to reduce administrative responsibilities and focus on our common life and faith as we anticipate and then enter into the mysteries and blessings of Holy Week and Easter. I've noticed a tendency in myself to read more poetry and ponder more artwork at this time of year. One poem, by Rumi, No end to the journey, will be included in the Worship Notes for this Sunday or can be read by clicking here.

I also was pleased to come across a moving array of poetry for Lent and Easter at an ecumenical website titled 'Journey with Jesus.' I've included below just one poem from a large collection that can be found by clicking here.

Finally, I hope some of you have enjoyed the series of Rembrandt sketches that have been on the Sunday bulletin covers in Lent. This Sunday's gospel features the story of the Raising of Lazarus, and I hope you might take a moment in anticipation to study the 1426 rendering (tempera and gold leaf on panel) by Giovanni di Paolo, an image of which follow the poem.

Silent God, by Edwina Gateley

This is my prayer-
That, though I may not see,
I be aware
Of the Silent God
Who stands by me.
That, though I may not feel,
I be aware
Of the Mighty Love
Which doggedly follows me.
That, though I may not respond,
I be aware
That God-my Silent, Mighty God,
Waits each day.
Quietly, hopefully, persistently.
Waits each day and through each night
For me.

For me-alone.

From Gately, Edwina, There Was No Path So I Trod One (1996, 2013)
