“Committed to Excellence in Training and Support”

A Note from Chaplain Mike Ryan, Region 2 Director

On behalf of our ICPC leadership, I want to welcome your participation in our annual ICPC Region 2 Regional Training Seminar. This year's conference will offer a balance of ICPC Basic Training along with advance courses designed to address the challenges addressed in the field.

We are honored to have Jeff Kemp as our plenary session speaker. He played 11 seasons as a Quarterback in the National Football League with the Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco Forty-Niners, Seattle Seahawks, and the Philadelphia Eagles. Jeff and his father Jack Kemp (former Vice-Presidential candidate and Secretary of Housing and Urban Development) were the first of only six sets of father/son NFL quarterbacks.

In 2012 Jeff joined FamilyLife as a Vice President and Catalyst for helping others strengthen families. Prior to joining FamilyLife, Jeff founded and led a dynamic organization, named Stronger Families, in the Pacific Northwest from 1993-2010, an organization that provides support to First Responders and members of the US military. Jeff has a Dartmouth MBA and is from a widely-respected political family. Jeff is now “a quarterback for the family.”

Persevering through the highs and lows of eleven years in the NFL gave Jeff valuable insights on servant leadership, committed teamwork, and overcoming adversity. Today, he passes on those lessons as he addresses topics including the ultimate team...investing in marriage in a consumer culture, legacy leadership...fueling exceptional teamwork for a legacy that lasts, and empty success and transcending trials. His recent Book, Facing the Blitz, communicates strategies for facing and overcoming life's greatest challenges.

Jeff and his wife Stacy have been married for over 30 years and have four sons who Jeff enjoyed coaching in various sports, especially football, while they were growing up. Jeff is an avid mountain biker and snow skier. He and Stacy enjoy mentoring young couples.

We are also once again honored to also have ICPC's Academic Registrar, John Transue, who will assist us with our academic needs and opportunities.

Our experience together at Canon Beach Conference Center affords many opportunities to strengthen and make new friendships, deepen our resilience in service, and raise the bar as proactive chaplains who are committed to the care of our charges in law enforcement.

As ever, if I or our Area Representatives can serve you in any way, please let us know. Thanks in advance for being with us.

Stay safe and God bless,

Mike

TOPICS COVERED AT THE 2018 RTS

The agencies we serve expect us to be trained and equipped to serve them with expertise and excellence. The 2018 RTS provides a unique opportunity to make the progress needed toward ICPC's highly recognized credentialing.

BASIC CLASSES

Each year the RTS offers 6 of the 12 ICPC Basic Courses. This allows new Chaplains to complete all of the Basic Courses in two years if the RTS is the only training they are able to attend. The 2018 RTS includes the following courses:

B04 - Ceremonies and Events – Diane Peterson

B05 - Confidentiality and Legal Liability –

B08 - Law Enforcement Family – Gordon Harper

B09 - Substance Abuse – Mike Ryan

B10 – Suicide – Diane Peterson

B12 - Sensitivity and Diversity –

ADVANCED CLASSES

Advanced classes are designed to cover topics of interest for Chaplains desiring to refresh and renew the latest understanding on critical areas of interest. This year includes the following Advanced courses:

Advanced Class #1 – Why is Stress So Stressful – Mike Dismore

Advanced Class #2 – Preparing Officers for Retirement – Mike Neil

Advanced Class #3 – Psychological First Aid – Mike Ryan

Advanced Class #4 – Fatal Crash Investigation & the Chaplain's Role – WSP Trooper Robert LeMay

TRAINING CREDENTIALING & EDUCATION INFORMATION

ICPC Academic Registrar Dr. John Transue will be joining us which provides you with an opportunity to learn how to accomplish the credentialing levels associated with the International Conference of Police Chaplains.

2018 RTS INSTRUCTORS

Chaplain Mike Dismore – Mike has been a pastor since 1978. He was a pastor with The Salvation Army in Colorado, Oregon, Idaho, and California and later with Family Bible Church in San Jose, California. He served as a volunteer for Region 2 by updating and maintaining the Regional website as needed. In May, 2004 he and his family moved to Redmond, Oregon where he serves as a chaplain with Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy. Mike is married and has two children.

Chaplain Diane Peterson – Dianne is Executive Director of Alaska Police & Fire Chaplains Ministry and the Commander for Alaska with Chaplain Fellowship Ministries. Diane is board certified in Clinical Chaplaincy and Pastoral Counseling through the College of Pastoral Supervision and Psychotherapy(CPSP). Licensed and ordained thru Trinity Full Gospel in 2009. Diane has extensive training in CISM, Crisis Negotiation and suicide prevention and post-vention. Established in 1973, the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) is a 501 (C) 3 organization providing global training to law enforcement chaplains, liaison officers, and agency administrators.

Training provides continuing education units (CEUs), as well as equipping attendees to better serve their communities.

Available to all, our quarterly publication The Journal provides current articles and other information pertinent to law enforcement chaplaincy.

Membership benefits include access to educational material and a network of mutual support, as well as:

Lending Library—available through the Member's Only Section.

Credentialing—Substantiate ongoing education by pursuing the following levels: Basic, Liaison, Senior, Master, Diplomate, and Fellow (see our Credentialing pamphlet for compliance requirements).

ICPC provides support and assistance to law enforcement agencies in establishing or improving chaplaincy programs.
