Legacy of Life

I miss Char Duey. A lot of us do. Char was on the go-go-go for God-God-God. She did a lot, including starting up the Central Kitsap Food Bank, maintaining the Clothing Closet, serving at Hallowed Grounds Cafe, serving as the events coordinator for the church hosting weddings and funerals (MAKING the bride's wedding dress?!)... Char did a lot. But as her friends and family were sharing during the service last Monday, something jumped out to me: for Char it wasn't just about serving—doing the various tasks—it was the people. Char did it for the people.

Two-thousand years ago, people had to work hard and keep their heads down to avoid being criticized by religious leaders. A bad report from a rabbi about you could sink your business or cost you your job. Ancient Jews were known for their emphasis on hospitality, but there were limits: you didn't just lavish it on anyone. You saved it for family and close friends or anyone who was staying under your roof. But Jesus pushed his followers on this point, and on his final evening with his disciples when they share the Last Supper together, he makes this profound statement:

John 13:34-35³⁴ So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. ³⁵ Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples."

One of the guests at Char's service shared with everyone how they had first come to visit Silverdale United Methodist Church many years before. Char was the first one to meet them at the door.

Char: "Are you new to Kitsap County?"

Guest: "Yep."

Char: "Do you have any family around here?"

Guest: "Nope."

Char: "Well we're your family now."

And you know what? Char was bold and prophetic in that moment: that couple became a part of the church.

There are people like Char that help us fulfill our mission of serving Jesus, loving people, and living his Word in outstanding ways over the years. Everyone talks about Ruby Langill's hugs. She and her husband Jack WERE the young adult ministry for decades. In our current hospitality squad watch Anne Shriner and how she connects with newcomers—she is a laser beam of love. Silverdale United will continue to help people in need, and we will continue to rebuild our youth and young adult ministries, while doing great things with kids, and providing excellent music for the worship of God's people. We will meet in classrooms and homes to grow disciples on Sundays and throughout the week. We will keep updating our technology and physical plant for our future needs. We will equip people to pray and serve in the power of the Holy Spirit anywhere in the world. But warmly and consistently receiving guests is a must if our local mission will continue through the rest of the 21st century. And it's so winsome: not only do they get to see that we really are following in Jesus' footsteps—they get a chance to do it too. Char has finished her run. Are you ready to step up?

A Light in the Darkness. God uses shoebox gifts and The Greatest Journey discipleship program to bring the Gospel to an unreached people group.

For more than 20 years, Susing had prayed that the people in her poor, remote village would come to know God. "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." Luke 11:9

Nearly 15 million children worldwide have participated in The Greatest Journey, and 6.9 million have come to faith in Jesus Christ. We sing praises!

During the months of July and August, we will be collecting school supplies for our shoeboxes. (note books, pens, pencils, pencil sharpeners, erasers (please no pencil caps), crayons, colored pencils, markers and scissors).

Thank you for supporting such a wonderful outreach program where the main goal is to give these children hope in Jesus Christ, and to learn that Jesus loves them.

You may leave your donations in the OCC basket in the foyer. Please mark them OCC, as the church will be collecting school supplies for the Backpack program too! Questions? Gloria Lee 360-509-9195.

Mary Eyer needs help with Coffee Oasis meal on July 20. We need someone to prepare a meal for 50 kids and deliver it to the Bremerton downtown Coffee Oasis around 5-5:30pm on that Friday night. Anyone interested please email Mary, marythemom86@hotmail.com.
