An Old Farmer's Advice

- Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.
- Words that soak into your ears are whispered, not yelled.
- Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.
- Forgive your enemies; it messes up their heads.
- It don't take a very big person to carry a grudge.
- You cannot unsay a cruel word.
- Every path has a few puddles.
- When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
- The best sermons are lived, not preached.
- God wants spiritual fruit, not religious nuts.
- Laugh every day. It's like inner jogging.
- If you worry, you didn't pray. If you pray, you didn't worry.
- As a child of God, prayer is kinda like callin' home every day.
- Blessed are the flexible. They cannot be bent out of shape.
- The most important things in yer house are the people.
- When you get tangled up in problems, be still. God wants us to be still so He can untangle the knot.
- A grudge is a heavy thing to carry.
- He who dies with the most toys is still dead.
- Growing old is inevitable. Growing UP Is optional.
- There is no key to happiness. The door is always open.
- Silence is often misinterpreted but never misquoted.
- Do the math. Count your blessings.
- Faith is the ability to not panic.
- Don't interfere with something' that ain't botherin' you none.
- A bumble bee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.
- "Incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding" Proverbs 2:2.
