Questions for Reflection

1. To what things is the world calling me to bow? Where have I been too comfortable with compromise?
2. What are my actions revealing about what is most important to me?
3. Have I been avoiding the fires in the interest of comfort? Where is God calling me to uncomfortable obedience?
4. Have I understood that obedience is a demonstration of my love for God?
5. Where is my witness being compromised by my disobedience?
