Life Application Questions:

1. When you first believed the Good News did you understand that you had been united with Christ? How might this concept affect your daily life?
2. How often are your thoughts and affections set on things above? How often are they not?
3. Are your relationships worshipful? Is God glorified in the way you treat others?
4. Would those who know you describe you as grateful or critical? To what extent is this a reflection on your understanding of the Gospel?
5. What areas of your daily life need to be more honoring to God? What help do you need to get to that point? Will you seek out that help?
