Life Application Questions:

1. What drives your close relationships: a deep trust in God, or something else?
2. In what ways do you see submission as a way to worship God? How is your relationship to your spouse or family pleasing to Him?
3. When things get tough in your marriage or family, what drives your default response – self-preservation, or focus on others? What would it look like if you trusted God and put others first?
4. How can submission change the way you relate to your spouse, family, and friends? Do you care for them at a soul level?
