Welcome from Pastor Bob

Welcome to St. Paul United Methodist Church! Whether you're a first time visitor or a long time attendee, I'm glad you're worshipping with us today! I want to make sure you know that next Sunday we are having one joint worship time when our whole church family will gather together for World Communion Sunday. If you normally come to 10:30 a.m. worship, set your alarm a little earlier and join us at 9 a.m. After worship we'll have a free pancake breakfast, and an auction to benefit St. Paul. It's going to be a very special worship, and we'll have a lot of fun together afterwards, so I hope you'll all attend and bring a friend!

Take a look through this bulletin for other ways you can get involved in our mission to Glorify God, Grow in Faith, and Give in Love. I also invite you to visit our website at stpaulumc.org or stop by the Connection Center at the side of the sanctuary lobby if you'd like to speak to anyone about St. Paul and our ministries.

Thank you for being part of the Lord's work here at St. Paul. With God's help there is nothing we can't do!

Bob Martin, Senior Pastor

10:30 CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP

A typical contemporary worship at St. Paul lasts about an hour. Worship is filled with current Christian music from our praise band. You are invited to sing along with the words on the screens, or simply enjoy the music. You'll notice there is a time in our worship to give financially. This is how we support the ministries and missions of our church. We hope you experience the love of God with us today!

Candy Donations Needed

For the past few years our Preschool and Children's Ministry have had a booth at the City of Largo's Spooktacular so we can introduce our ministries to new families. The booth is free, but we have to provide the candy. We need donations of individually wrapped candy to give out at the booth. If you can donate, please drop your bags of candy in the blue shopping cart on Sunday or at the church office during the week. Any type of individually wrapped candies are welcome.

Looking for a way to get involved but not sure where to start? If you are here Sunday morning why not get plugged in to helping make worship happen? We are looking for ushers and communion servers at 10:30. Ushers hand out bulletins, help people to their seats, collect the offering, answer questions and represent the joy of St. Paul UMC. Communion servers come forward at communion time and distribute the elements to the congregation. Instructions for all positions is provided. No experience is necessary. If you are willing to be part of the team on a rotational basis contact Laurel Fortuna, Senior Director of Music & Worship Arts at laurel.f@stpaulumc.org or call 584-8165 ext. 208 or fill out the Connect Card

Handicapable Begins Fall Social Activities with Pizza Party and Movie Night

Handicapable kicked off its fall social activities with one of its favorite events, a pizza party and movie night. Eighty three members, from all parts of Pinellas County, gathered to eat and spend time with each other. The movie, Jungle Boy, was a huge hit with the crowd roaring its approval at the end when good triumphed over evil as Man Cub became ruler of all.

Our group also recognized long-time member Richie Sunderlin, pictured above with the blue shirt, and wished him well as he will be moving to Pittsburgh to live with his sister. The treats, provided by Vickie Anderson, were another highlight of our enjoyable evening. Thank you volunteers for making this wonderful ministry possible!

Vickie Anderson provided snacks

Open Arms is Touching Lives

We recently received a phone call from a young woman whose hours at work had been cut down from 40 to 15. She had gone three days without food before coming to the Open Arms Resource Center. At Open Arms she received food, as well as some clothing. She called to say thank you and tell us how much she appreciated the help she received. Every day Open Arms is reaching hundreds of people just like this young woman, not only giving them food and other necessities, but also letting them know that they are not alone. God loves them, and we do too!

Photo Directories Available For Pick-Up

If you had a picture taken, you may pick up your free copy of the photo directory in the Connection Center or at the church office. If you did not have a picture taken, we do have a few extras that will be available for $10 on a first come, first served basis.

GOOD NEWS

South Sudan Update

Carolyn Goodwin, a St. Paul member who has been serving as a missionary with the Mission Society in South Sudan has sent us an update from Uganda, where many have fled during the ongoing violence in South Sudan. She has some good news to report! Some of the children from the orphanages were evacuated on July 20, but many others had been stuck in a dangerous area. They were finally able to bring the rest of the children from the children's homes across the border this month. She tells us getting the second group out safely was nothing short of a miracle. The UN is trying to keep everyone organized and disciplined in the refugee camps. They have distributed necessities like saucepans, blankets, and more to the people who are coming with just the shirts on their backs. There are still a lot of needs, and the processing and transition from the time of crossing the border to getting to a camp can be days or even weeks. Please pray for the hundreds who are crossing daily.

First group of children evacuated July 20.

Second group of children evacuated September 7.

Carolyn writes, "The first time we went out to the camp to greet the children they were obviously disturbed with very serious and tired faces. By the time we left, there was laughter and lots of smiles. I learned in Stephen Ministry that sometimes the best thing to do for someone is just be there. It was obvious when we left a difference was made. God has answered my "what to do" question. Seeing those children smile has convinced me the focus of my ministry is to minister to the refugees of South Sudan any way I can. Then when it is time to return to Yei, I pray the Lord will allow me to be with them to help them go home."

Carolyn is planning to be in Florida on October 2 as part of her furlough. If you would like to talk to Carolyn when she's here about the South Sudanese or how you can help the refugees you can e-mail her to set up a time at goodwin.carolyn99@gmail.com. She is happy to speak with individuals or groups like Sunday School classes or Source Groups. If you would like to support Carolyn's ministry with a tax deductible donation, visit carolyngoodwinsblog.blogspot.com and click on The Mission Society link. You can give specifically to the refugees by designating your donation on her account for special projects.

Handicapable Reaches Out to Sylvan Rehab

For over a year, our Handicapable Ministry has been offering a monthly worship service for the residents of Sylvan Rehab in Clearwater. During this time, we have befriended over 50 residents and their families. Last week, four of our Handicapable students pictured above: Noreen, Laura, Rene and Tom, took part in the service. Each Handi member told the attendees a little about themselves, helped lead the singing and participated in other aspects of worship. They also shared gift bags, prepared by a member of JOY Ministry, with the attendees. What a blessing to share worship and fellowship with the community through these ministries.
