

PRESBYTERY OF LAKE ERIE
YOUNG ADULT ADVISORY DELEGATE

Serving as a Young Adult Advisory Delegate will include a very full nine days of activity in Portland, Oregon. You will be invited to analyze and vote on a wide range of issues from basic direction of the denomination to budgets. You will hear discussion around social issues and receive a '10,000 foot view' of the denomination. Worship experiences are always quite powerful at the General Assembly gathering.

If selected as the Lake Erie YAAD you will need to engage in a considerable advance reading and preparation as well as participate in the orientation of the Lake Erie commissioners. The YAAD will need to travel to Portland on Friday (or even Thursday) before the General Assembly gathering and would be home nine days later on Saturday evening at the earliest. It is a profound opportunity to learn about the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Other questions for potential applicants should be directed to General Presbyter David Oyler (david@pbylakeerie.org).
