VETERANS DAY

November 11, 2011

A Message of Thanksgiving from Pastor Jerome . . .

“Dear Friends, this year as we approach the Thanksgiving season, I want to express my overflowing gratitude for Beth Ann Murray and our wonderful Children’s Ministry Team. Week in and week out they continue to serve faithfully and joyfully, leading our precious little ones into Jesus’ loving embrace. I am so excited about the new children’s program they will be unveiling this month. Sara Brown (the granddaughter of our beloved Darlene Thumb) introduced this program to us and will help organize and lead it beginning Sunday, November 6. Below you will find Beth Ann’s preview of what’s in store for our children this holiday season. ENJOY! ... I know they will!”

Pastor Jerome

“Elevate”

From Beth Ann Murray, Director of Children’s Ministries . . .

Come join us as we visit Professor Playtime’s Christmas Shop of Wonders!

Here your kids will learn the true meaning of Christmas and see the Christmas story through the eyes of the people who actually experienced this wondrous event! Grab your Christmas cheer and as much jolliness as you can carry, because the Christmas Shop of Wonders is open for business!

On November 6th we will be introducing this new Children’s Sunday School Program!

“Elevate”

Elevate is a children’s curriculum produced by Fellowship Church. This is unlike any children’s program we have ever seen before. With skits, Bible Stories, and Small Group video training, Elevate has it covered. Elevate uses theme-based, Bible driven, character lessons, that will immerse our kids in a world of creative and relevant biblical teaching. Elevate is an all-inclusive program, that will provide us with everything we need to make our Sunday School teaching the best it can be.

The new program will commence on November 6th. We have our awesome Sunday School team already in place plus brand new helpers who will be making this program come alive for your children. We continue to put together our teams to perform the live skits and Bible Stories. To change it up, we even have the option to watch the Bible story and skit during the teaching time as well.

We are excited about our new venture. Not only will our new Sunday School program bring in new ideas, it will include Small Group activities, hand-outs for the families, continual volunteer training and Teacher Devotionals.

So church family, please pray that Elevate will help our children become more excited about church while they are learning more about God!

Children’s Ministry Happenings!

Preschool is slowly adding to our enrollment one student at a time. God is so good about bringing the families that He wants to belong to our already wonderful family.

AWANA grows weekly, this week our Sparky’s team added 3 new students. T & T continues to be strong and consistent in their enrollment. Even our cubbies are filling a room. We are up to 50 students now. God is sooo good.

On October 10th, Los Amigos had a fun adventure at the San Diego Zoo. We will resume our normal routine of tutoring on October 25th. We have 21 children enrolled with 2 students on our wait list. Please make a dream come true and join our team so we can invite these new students into our program.

Our Sunday school program is gearing up for our new adventure with Elevate. Our first adventure is “Professor Playtime’s CHRISTMAS SHOP OF WONDERS! Not only do we have a superb Sunday School team already in place, but we are trying something new for a few months to see if our kids and parents are ready for something new. We need lots of volunteers and friends who are willing to serve in the new Children’s Ministry program.

Sign up Sunday at our Children’s Ministry table.

The Mission Statement of Fallbrook Presbyterian Church:

To bring people into a relationship with Jesus Christ, grow them up as His lifelong disciples, and gather them into a Christ-centered community where they can experience and express God’s love.

W.O.W. Presents Revelation

Here and Now...There and Then
by Beth Moore

An 11-week lecture series on the book of Revelation continues. Beth presents many points of view, allowing women to decide for themselves when the interpretation varies among scholars. She teaches that God is as specific about what He does reveal as He is about what He does not reveal. We live in a world that is upside down and it is scripture that turns it right side up. Sixty-six books of the Bible are not like separate pieces of a whole. Picture them like a long rope with sixty-six knots in it. They are all telling the same redemption story over and over. They are all tied together. Revelation is the amazing finish to what began in the book of Genesis.

P.W. Women Presents "Set Apart"

A Study of the Beatitudes by Jennifer Kennedy Dean

In this study, author Jennifer Kennedy Dean explores the Beatitudes. By bringing in the distinctively Jewish setting of Jesus inaugural sermon, Jennifer uncovers fresh nuances and overlooked undertones. Her distinctive communication style and approach to the Scripture is on full display in this challenging, encouraging, indispensable study.

Join PW the first Wednesday of each month starting in November (Nov. 2) at 10 a.m. in the Chapel. This group is a no-stress, slower-paced group led by Pastor Jerome. Call Juliana Tipton for more info at 760-728-3676.

Feature of the Month:

Answered Prayers by Joannie Sawdon

On every mission trip I have been, God has done at least one miracle. On my first trip in 2001, the first event happened in the San Diego airport. At that time we were a team of 50 plus from 14 different churches and headed for South Africa. With the confusion of that many people who could each claim 2 suitcases, we had a surplus of about 4 supply suitcases. We all believed we needed to bring these supplies so we gathered together to pray that God would intervene. When we finished praying and looked over to the loading area, the suitcases were being placed on the conveyor belt. The second miracle happened before we were in South Africa and I believe it occurred because of those additional suitcases. As we were approaching Africa, the pilot came on the intercom and announced that due to additional weight we would be unable to land in Jo'berg. Instead we were landing in Capetown (much closer to Paarl). Our checked luggage went on to Jo'berg and the airport apologized for the inconvenience. Customs was a breeze, there was no fees for additional luggage, and the rest of the luggage was delivered to us. All of these God interventions occurred before we were even settled in. There were many more that occurred throughout the trip.

One of my favorite miracles shows that God has a sense of humor. We were on a Malawi trip on our bus and had to pass through a military check stop. One of our impulsive youths decided to take a picture of the guard. The guard stopped the bus, ordered the youth off (accompanied by our trip leader), and demanded to see the youth's passport. We had been told to bring our passports everywhere we went. Of course, this youth did not have his. The youth was a tall thin white kid and the passport that was passed forward for him to use was of a large black youth with dreadlocks. We prayed for the Lord to make the guard blind to the passport. We watched as the guard checked out the passport, looked at the youth and continued talking. In a few minutes we were all aboard and allowed to pass.

In South Africa we were invited to teach about Jesus in the public schools. We were team teaching. Our first lesson was on the gospel beads and I was concerned as to how high school kids would receive this lesson. Not only were the kids completely involved, but they refused to leave at the end of the period. The principal had to find another classroom for his next class. The kids were open and honest with us and we fell in love with them. On the last day in the schools, a young girl came up and asked me to pray for her. Her name was Precious and she did not want to steal any more. My heart was overwhelmed. Besides praying for her, I told her that she was precious to the Lord and could always rely on the Lord to be with her. The youth leaders identified on this trip led to the development of the "Dream Team."

Shortly before we left for the Ethiopia trip, Pastor "Benny" Yusuf e-mailed me that he wanted to feed the pastors at the church leadership conferences. This would cost $2,500, and I responded that I would see what we could do. Everyone was still raising their own funds, and the budget did not include this money. We all believed that God wanted this to happen but had no idea how. We prayed and God provided the funds right before we left.

*A Blessed Thanksgiving
To Our Church Family
And Friends!*

“I will praise God’s name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving.”

Psalm 69:30, NIV

Answered Prayers

Also on the Ethiopia trip, we were waiting in a tiny airport for our “puddle jumping” flight to one of the conferences. There was a thunderstorm that showed no signs of stopping. Our luggage sat on the tarmac getting soaked. We were told by Pastor Yusuf that we would have to sleep on the tile in the little waiting room if the rain didn’t stop. We would also miss a dinner with the church leaders and have no time to prepare for the conference the next day if we made it at all. We huddled together to pray. We finished praying and looked outside to see a patch of blue sky in the middle of the storm and our plane came through the patch. We boarded and took off through the blue hole in the sky.

These are just a few examples of the miracles God has done on mission trips. I now look forward to seeing what God is going to do on each trip. I believe we are more aware of God’s work on mission trips because we are not constantly bombarded by information and distractions as we are at home. I have also found that I am more aware of God performing his work back home because of these experiences.

Thank You, Church Family

As a result of your obedience to God, we have received a great variety of fabric and supplies for the Malawi Orphans Clothing Ministry. With our needs being met, we are filled with encouragement and energy to keep this ministry going.

Bless all of you.

Letter From Janet Rowlands, One of Our Missionaries

Fall-ing Into Place

Dear Friends and Family -

Today I am sipping a warm cup of tea as the weather turns blustery outside. In the last week the colors have begun to pop on the trees here in Budapest. Fall is definitely in the air!

As much as I love summer ministries, there is something about fall that gives me a special joy. There is a rhythm to the autumn season, as ministries begin again in churches and the school year progresses. There is a daily cadence which I find comfortable after the exuberance of summer camps and schedules. It's as if things are fall-ing into place when the seasons change.

This is true for my daily ministry as well. Since my last update, summer has come to a close, and I have been focusing on some specific ministry directions. Here's a snapshot of the last couple of months for me. (and a link to a slideshow of photos accompanying each of the following stories):

Summer Wrap Up

As August drew to a close, I was serving with PI's Member Development Team in Orlando for a 2 week period of time. I learned so much about caring well for our field based personnel from those who do it best! I was also able to serve by facilitating a 3 day strategic vision retreat for this growing team. In the past year they have almost doubled in size, so it was a timely opportunity to walk through a process of articulating their ministry vision for the next 3 years. It was a joy to be with them, and to hear their heart for those who serve HIM in remote and difficult places.

I also enjoyed building on relationships which were started at our English Camp. Kriszti's two sons attended camp this summer, and they joined us for

November

By Robert Frost

We saw leaves go to glory,
 Then almost migratory
 Go part way down the lane,
 And then to end the story
 Get beaten down and pasted
 In one wild day of rain.
 We heard "'Tis over" roaring.
 A year of leaves was wasted.

Oh, we make a boast of storing,
 Of saving and of keeping,
 But only by ignoring
 The waste of moments sleeping,
 The waste of pleasure weeping,
 By denying and ignoring
 The waste of nations warring.

God didn't promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow or sun without rain. But God did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears and a light for the way. And for all who believe in His Kingdom of love, He answers their faith with peace from above.

Our yearly coordinators are Elissa Taylor and Miriam Kirk. Fall quarterly leaders are Sonja Smit, 951-587-0722 and Rhonda Hill, 760-451-1554.

church in Vecsés the Sunday following camp. She and I met several times as the summer came to a close. As a teacher, it will be more difficult for us to meet during the school year. Will you please pray that we will be able to continue to build our relationship and I would be a reflection of Jesus as we spend time together?

Fall Focus

Outreach - I returned to Hungary in early September, just in time for a fresh ministry year. This fall I've chosen to become more involved in the life of one of our church plants in Vecsés, Hungary. Each month they host a "Patchwork Club" - a quilting and craft evening outreach for ladies in the community. Approximately 20-25 women attend this monthly outreach which includes a quilting or craft project - and a time for a brief testimony as well. I love being a part of it - though it stretches my skills in both sewing and Hungarian! Please pray for the church in Vecsés as they seek to be salt and light in their community.

Celebrations - Within the life of the small church in Petőfibánya, late summer/early fall brought two great occasions for celebration. The first was the baptism of 3 young believers in early September. There was an overflow crowd (we had to move out into the yard!) for the service when Eszti, Zsofi and

Praying for New Believers

Gyuri were baptized. Both Zsofi and Eszti made commitments at English Camp this summer after many years of participating in the outreach ministries of the church. Celebrate with us as the family grows!

Earlier, we celebrated with Gabi and Enikő as they were married. This young couple met at English camp 4 years ago, and they have matured in their life and faith over the last few years. This was the first time I've been invited to a 'small town' Hungarian wedding. The traditions were wonderful and the occasion a reason for celebration!!

Growth - Over the summer, the PI leaders asked me to take on the leadership responsibility for a first ever leadership development initiative for PI members serving in Europe. Tomorrow I will depart for a week long residential gathering with PI members from 5 continents. North Americans will be in the minority in this group and we look forward to a gathering which truly reflects the international PI fellowship. The goal of this time is to provide life opportunities for learning, ministry skill development, mentoring, spiritual formation, character development, and deepening intimacy with Jesus Christ. Those attending make a 2 year commitment to pursue growth in community. Will you please join us by praying for this time. We will be together from Sunday, October 9 through Saturday, October 15.

It seems that this blend of local ministry and leadership/team development is emerging as a new direction in ministry for me. Yes, things are falling into place for me as well. Some key details - like team placement - are still taking form. But God is moving and directing the process. Will you please pray with me as that journey continues.

As I write this, I remain so very thankful for those of you who faithfully support this work through your gifts and (most important of all!) your prayers. I am grateful beyond what I can express!

With love and gratitude,
Janet

A Dog's Purpose As Viewed By A Six-year-old

By Bill Brown, submitted by Norm Leraas

Being a veterinarian, I had been called to examine a ten-year-old Irish Wolfhound named Belker. The dog's owners, Ron, his wife Lisa, and their little boy Shane, were all very attached to Belker and they were hoping for a miracle.

I examined Belker and found he was dying of cancer. I told the family we couldn't do anything for Belker, and offered to perform the euthanasia procedure for the old dog in their home.

As we made arrangements, Ron and Lisa told me they thought it would be good for six-year-old Shane to observe the procedure. They felt as though Shane might learn something from the experience.

The next day, I felt the familiar catch in my throat as Belker's family surrounded him. Shane seemed so calm, petting the old dog for the last time, that I wondered if he understood what was going on. Within a few minutes, Belker slipped peacefully away.

The little boy seemed to accept Belker's transition without any difficulty or confusion. We sat together for a while after Belker's death, wondering aloud about the sad fact that animal lives are shorter than human lives. Shane, who had been listening quietly, piped up, "I know why."

Startled, we all turned to him. What came out of his mouth next stunned me. I'd never heard a more comforting explanation. It has changed the way I try and live.

He said, "People are born so that they can learn how to live a good life — like loving everybody all the time and being nice, right?" The six-year-old continued, "Well, dogs already know how to do that, so they don't have to stay as long."

Live simply.

Love generously.

Care deeply.

Speak kindly.

Remember, if a dog was the teacher, you would learn things like:

When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.

Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joy ride.

Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure Ecstasy.

Take naps.

Stretch before rising.

Run, romp, and play daily.

Thrive on attention and let people touch you.

Avoid biting with a simple growl will do.

On warm days, stop to lie on your back on the grass.

On hot days, drink lots of water and lie under a shady tree.

When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.

Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.

Be loyal.

Never pretend to be something you're not.

If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.

When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by, and nuzzle them gently.

Enjoy every moment of every day!
