Brazil Mission Trip
October 17-28

Please be in prayer for our team [Sherry Aufdenkamp,

Jennifer Hallgath, Carol Lawson, Pam Price, Kim Torok] as they travel to Brazil and down the Amazon. They would love to tell you their stories from previous years and how you can pray specifically for them and those they will come in contact with during their trip.

Well, hello Fall! October is here and I am ready! We have a lot going on with Student Ministry in October. We'll be walking through a teaching series called "This is My Campus." Not just us, there are multiple churches who have decided to rally and get behind this idea. What's the idea? It's getting students to realize they go to a mission field almost every day...THEIR SCHOOL! God has placed us where we're at for a reason. If it is left up to Mike and Sarah Havran and I to reach students that don't know Jesus...many students won't ever know about Jesus. Come join us to start this series and also to celebrate the conclusion on October 15th with other churches in the area going through this together. Also, keep in mind retreats are just around the corner. October 20-22 is the Middle School Retreat at Woodland Lakes and November 3-5 is the High School Retreat at Butler Springs. We charge just $25 for an awesome weekend. Hope you can come and bring a friend. Grab a permission slip and get registered as soon as possible!

I hope for the 75 or 80 of us who gathered at the church property on Labor Day Weekend to watch Sandlot and eat some dogs and donuts will be one of those nights you file away in the back of your mind and look back on over the years.

It was back in 2004 the property became available to our church and was purchased in 2005. Since then many of you have given toward the vision of relocating the church campus to that 22 acres.

Dan Asche

I, like many of you, drive past the property, or in recent days, pull into the small gravel lot off Crane School House Road. I can sit there, and in my thinking, visualize what the building might look like, of ball fields with kids playing soccer or a church group playing softball. I can almost see the shelter house or one of our small groups playing volleyball in our Family Life Center and, of course, parking lots full of cars where people have come to worship. These are good thoughts for me. I hope for you, too.

One other thing I like to think about is a baptism service with our people standing around the edge of our lake and there in the lake you can see dozens of people being baptized into Christ realizing those people all are having a life-change because Christ has become their Savior.

Some may say just a dream, some may say more like a pipe dream, but it's the vision the church began with - not so much the building and the ball fields - but the vision of people who have had their life changed by Christ.

Come November 5 Jim Flaughter, who grew up in our church family and now preaches in Falmouth KY, will be with us to celebrate our 196 birthday. I hope you will be here to welcome Jim home that day.

I also pray for God's speed to be with us as we celebrate our past, but more importantly to celebrate what we anticipate to be a blessed future of connecting people with the only one who can save them from their sin, Jesus Christ. To Him be all glory, honor and praise.

Nov 5 - Budget Q & A at 12:30pm in Room 209

Nov 12 - Annual Meeting for the approval of 2018 church budget

Thanks,
