Kids Kove News

K-5th this month: We are beginning our Fruits of the Spirit lessons. Last week, we learned about love through object lessons, experiments, devotions, and watermelon! Next week we will learn about joy with exciting experiments, snacks and lessons. We are excited to talk about each fruit and what it means to live out every character trait in our lives.

Wednesday Night Kids starts back September 12th! Join us from 6:30-7:45pm each week for a snack, games, bible lesson and fellowship time with friends. This year we will be focusing on outreach in our community!

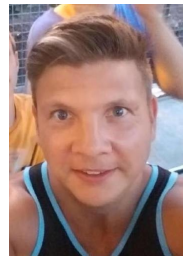

Sundays: We have several open volunteer positions in all classrooms. Please prayerfully consider giving one hour each month of your time to Kids Kove and build into our youngest generation of believers.

I hope everyone is having a great new school year! Hope to see you Sunday!

~ Nicole

Dan Asche

Most every year, in August, we get excited about the fall season. It includes back to school sales, the traditional fall activities we all love, along with the change in the leaves and landscape. Yet one other thing I think a number of us look forward to is the pace the autumn season brings to our lives. It's sort of like someone breathes a breath of fresh wind into our life after the hot summer season. We get excited about the new fall season and we get all fired up!

It's good to catch a wave of new opportunity and be excited about the change happening around you this time of the year. But after you get fired up – what are you suppose to do with that sense of excitement and that feeling within you? Do you just let it die or do you harness that energy and use it to grow the Kingdom of God? As believers, Christ gives us times and seasons of renewal, where we stop the drift that has been going on in our life and we once again renew our commitments to the Lord. The Lord wants us to get our life back on track with Him and His vision to reach out to people with the message of the gospel.

Fall is a good time to build relationships and reach out to others through joining a group or a class at church. It may also be a great time to reach out and meet some of the parents whose children are in the class your kid attends at school. Perhaps you can host a get together of parents and kids at your house or maybe you could invite other parents to our church Bonfire at the camp on Oct. 21.

Many thanks to Kathleen Miller for being so good to lead the course on GriefShare over the summer months. Most every Tuesday night Kathleen and her group have been here to grow through their grief and encourage others on how to cope with their loss.

Also, to our Tuesday night men's group led this summer by Greg Garrett and Steve Guenther. Over the summer months they have completed several physical projects like repairing the east downspouts, power washing our two ramps and then staining them to be ready for the fall and winter months ahead. Thanks men!

Have a good Labor Day weekend. Hope to see you Sunday as we worship Christ in the unity of God's love and grace.
