Kids Kove News

K-5th this month: We just completed our ten week Fruit of the Spirit lessons. Last week, we learned about self control through object lessons, experiments, devotions, and crafts! Next week, we begin our series about giving thanks during this Thanksgiving season.

*Looking ahead: We will begin practicing for our Christmas performance this month. We will be singing at the 9:30am & 11am services on December 23 AND our Christmas Eve service, 4pm.

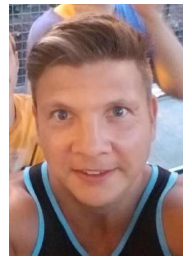

Wednesday Night Kids will be finishing up their fall session on November 13. The next two weeks, we will take a field trip to purchase gifts for our Operation Christmas Child gifts and pack our boxes. And donations are appreciated!

Sundays: We have several open volunteer positions in all classrooms. Please prayerfully consider giving one hour each month of your time to Kids Kove and build into our youngest generation of believers.

I hope everyone is enjoying this fall season! Hope to see you Sunday! ~ Nicole

We have many ministry opportunities available. Take some time to pray about where God can use you to help people in changing, connecting and caring at Community. Contact Connie Cravens. She would love to help you discover your piece in the 3C puzzle.

It's the traditional Fall Back Weekend – so set your clocks back for Sunday.

Thanks to the many of you who have prayed and participated in the various outreach events sponsored by the church family. This week it will be our annual Trunk or Treat in the church west parking lot. Giving out candy seems like an easy way to let people know about our church family and maybe getting in a kind word about Jesus, too.

Dan Asche In recent months it might have been our Homecoming Outreach (good to know some of the towns people call us the hotdog church) with the hotdog/water give away we do each year. Or it might be to you who risked a little and invited some friends or perhaps your family to our bonfire at Woodland Lakes.

Outreach for any church is of the highest priority. Without some form of friendship evangelism going on by us believers the local church will most likely be in real trouble. We always want to honor and worship the Lord by seeking to bring people to Him and His church.

In many communities today churches are facing declining numbers in attendance, fewer volunteers, and a real competition for the time and attention of her people. Thanks to the many of you who give of yourselves to influence others on behalf of Christ. It may be by grilling, wrapping and passing out hundreds of hotdogs, or passing out candy from the trunk of your car, or by saying to a friend, "Hey, could I tell you about Jesus and what having Him in my life has done for me?" Thank you!

Many thanks to Jan Ragland for organizing our bonfire at the camp and to Joan's c-group for getting all our food set up and cleaned-up that afternoon and evening. Also, thanks to the Wedemeyer c-group for all the hauling of tables, coolers, drinks and whatever, plus all the clean-up you guys did. We really appreciate your servant's heart!

I was surprised by John Fultz, chairman of the elders, last Sunday after our third service. Not sure just who all to thank for the gifts but the Reds Jersey and the 4 gift cards to Skyline, LaRosa's, Outback, and Bob Evans are all much appreciated. It's been a quick ten years. Thanks to all.
