Central Brazil Mission

Earl and Ruth Anne Haubner, who grew up in southwest Ohio, have served as missionaries in Brazil since 1969. Their ministry is based in the city of Goiânia, near the capital city of Brasília where they have a very successful church planting and leadership training program. More than 50 churches have been started as a result of their ministry. In 1995, their mission work expanded into the State of Amazonas, in the northern part of Brazil, and since the year 2000, they have taken more than 80 trips on the Amazon River to visit remote villages that are only accessible by boat.
