Happy Friday Community!

You may have noticed in other places that starting in June we will have registration for the Youth Flag Football League [age 4 by Feb 1 through current 5th graders]. Several months back Chris & Becky Halcomb sent me a detailed proposal of how we might be able to offer the league. Having helped start this sort of a league in times past, I am excited about it for our young families that want their kids to play sports, however are fearful for some sport programs tend to dominate your family time. I think our people will enjoy Flag Football as we begin to unroll the children's sports ministry.

Since the initial proposal, our leaders have walked the vision forward despite the virus shut-down. We believe we will be able to have the league, but the virus is a challenge to overcome. Obviously, we want our elementary age young people to be a part of the league, but we also view flag football as a way to engage and do outreach with our community. Would you pray for the Halcombs and for the success of the league?

Thanks to many of you for the drive-by parade for Jan Ragland last Sunday. Scott spoke with me a couple of times this week. First, to say Jan and the family loved the parade. Secondly, he told me of her surgery on Tuesday to remove water from around her heart. She is doing well from that procedure. Thank you for your prayers. Jan and her family have dealt with cancer for years. Do continue to pray for strength for her and her family.

One of the events we had on our church calendar that we needed to change was the estate planning seminar led by Dave Hess from Financial Planning Ministries. We, at Community, have been blessed by our relationship with FPM over the last 10 to 15 years. FPM is a non-profit ministry that serves God's people/churches and to my knowledge they are the only ministry in the country that does what they do. You are never too young to benefit from the services offered by FPM. JSYK - They sell nothing and you will be glad you invested the hour. Dave will be doing a 1 hour presentation on Zoom. When you register you will receive an email with a link and you will be able to watch and ask questions. Connie will begin publicizing the event once we receive the information. Mark the date: Wednesday, June 10, @ 7pm.

I plan to listen to Kyle speak about Noah with you guys on Sunday morning at Starlite Drive-In @ 11:30.
