

“Get Ready”- Prophecy Manuscript

The Lord would instruct us to “get ready” for His coming presence.

We must prepare ourselves both personally as well as corporately to welcome and sustain His manifest presence.

The blessing of Christ’s manifest presence will not only be for our benefit.

We are the carriers of Christ’s divine manifest presence. The presence of Christ no longer dwells within a temple built by man, but abides within us as we continue to abide in Him.

The Lord is preparing us for the great harvest of souls before His soon return.

Every place you set your foot will bear the mark of my presence. Your homes, work, families, community, and all other places under your foot will be exposed to the manifest presence of Christ. Only then will you experience the inflow of the harvest.

As the Holy Spirit comes upon you, you will receive boldness to be my witnesses.

You will witness through expanding circles of influence. This influence will be provided as favor with God and man. You are to walk in the increase of favor with humility and absolute surrender to the will of Christ.

A passionate love song that comes directly from the Throne of heaven will fuel this harvest.

You will break out into the new song, which will equip you and strengthen you to carry the manifest presence of Jesus out into the fields.

We must develop an attitude of expectancy.

Those who come expecting will receive, but those who come distracted will leave with continued missed opportunity.

Our first requirement is always the preparation of death to self.

You cannot welcome my presence while you are filled with self-willed flesh. The two are mutually exclusive of each other. The more you die, the more you will gain my presence.

Do not be afraid of rejection or persecution. For if “they persecuted me, they will persecute you also.” I have promised you “I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Scripture must take pre-eminence in everything you do.

The Word of God will be your continual guide as you step forward. You must saturate yourself daily through meditation in the Word. Then the Holy Spirit will bring to your remembrance what you have deposited within.

I will lead you in pathways unknown to you.

Do not fear the unknown. To fear is to question God's abiding presence. Remember, he has promised to "never leave you nor forsake you." To fear makes evident the need for maturity in the perfect love of Christ, for "perfect love drives out fear."

The fear of man is the great enemy of forward progress.

You are to put your fear firmly in the Lord and surrender the opinion of man to death on the cross. Only through full surrender and obedience will you walk the path put before you.

A sacrifice will be required of you.

The releasing of what you treasured before will shape the sacrifice. Those things, which you counted as gain, you must now count as loss for the sake of Christ. To gain Christ is to lose the things of the world.

Be careful what you say to one another, for you are "snared with the words of your mouth." (Proverbs 6:2)

You can grieve the presence of the Holy Spirit by what you say to one another. The power of the tongue must continually be surrendered to the obedience of Christ. He held his tongue when he was accused and allowed his Father to fight on his behalf. You must follow the example of Christ in the same manner.

It is of utmost importance that you keep your eyes fixed on Christ.

He alone is your stability and provision for every need.

He alone will lead you down the path by His Spirit who lives within you.

He alone is faithful to complete what He started.

Do not hesitate. Do not second-guess. Do not question.

The pathway will be made clear as you step out in faith and trust.

You must step out for that is the only way to receive the fullness that Christ has for you.

You must believe in the full promise of God and know that "He is for you so who can be against you."
