

Sermon-Based Questions for the week of 9/17/17

When an Encounter with Jesus is Not Enough – Luke 17:11-19

- 1) Where is a place you always return too and why (a restaurant, vacation spot, store, etc)?
- 2) If you are a faithful attender at a church, why do you come back every Sunday? What draws you there?
- 3) Why do you think church attendance is so sporadic for so many? What is missing?
- 4) Do you agree with Pastor Dan that just getting people to church or having an encounter with Jesus doesn't guarantee a transformed life? Why or why not?
- 5) Why do you think the other 9 lepers did not return and thank Jesus?
- 6) Do you see Sunday worship as your opportunity to do what the one leper did, fall on your face before Jesus and give Him thanks? If you do, how does that change how you worship on Sunday's?
- 7) Name some of the reasons you have to genuinely respond to Jesus Christ in worship? How might you express your gratitude to Him this week?
- 8) Is there anything inhibiting you from giving thanks and praising Jesus Christ with an authentic faith every Sunday? Can you name it, and if so, what can be done to remove it?
- 9) How can getting what we want from Jesus actually be a stumbling block in responding to Him as we should as our Savior, Lord, Master?

Sermon-Based Questions for the week of 9/17/17

When an Encounter with Jesus is Not Enough – Luke 17:11-19

- 1) Where is a place you always return too and why (a restaurant, vacation spot, store, etc)?
- 2) If you are a faithful attender at a church, why do you come back every Sunday? What draws you there?
- 3) Why do you think church attendance is so sporadic for so many? What is missing?
- 4) Do you agree with Pastor Dan that just getting people to church or having an encounter with Jesus doesn't guarantee a transformed life? Why or why not?
- 5) Why do you think the other 9 lepers did not return and thank Jesus?
- 6) Do you see Sunday worship as your opportunity to do what the one leper did, fall on your face before Jesus and give Him thanks? If you do, how does that change how you worship on Sunday's?
- 7) Name some of the reasons you have to genuinely respond to Jesus Christ in worship? How might you express your gratitude to Him this week?
- 8) Is there anything inhibiting you from giving thanks and praising Jesus Christ with an authentic faith every Sunday? Can you name it, and if so, what can be done to remove it?
- 9) How can getting what we want from Jesus actually be a stumbling block in responding to Him as we should as our Savior, Lord, Master?