“STOP CONDEMNING YOURSELF”

“He is life a refiner’s fire and life launderer’s soap” Malachi 3:2

“There is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus” Romans 8:1

Malachi 3:2 says that God is like a refiner’s fire as well as launderer’s soap. Soap cleanses the outside; fire cleanses the inside. And, the Spirit of God does both! When you sin, repent. In depth repentance brings in depth cleansing. Don’t feel bad about feeling bad. Feel good about it. The fact God is convicting you of sin is proof of His love for you. What you never want to hear God say is what He said about Ephraim. “Ephraim is joined to idols, let him alone” (Hosea 4:17)

God can forgive your sins, but he cannot overlook it. Unconfessed sin disrupts your fellowship with Him. Forgiveness is about more than just escaping the penalty of sin; it’s about restoring your fellowship with God. You say, “Won’t God get tired of me sinning and repenting?”. If Jesus told Peter to forgive his brother ‘seventy times seven’ would He do less for you? The Bible says, “Come, now and let us reason together... though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow...”. So the moment you become aware of your sin, confess it, then leave His presence confident knowing you are forgiven.

The word for your today is –stop condemning yourself! God says, “I, even, I am he that bloteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins” (Isaiah 43:25)

When God says He forgets your sin and you insist on remembering, it is like saying your standards are higher than His. That’s akin to idolatry! The Bible says, “God for Christ’s sake hath forgave you” (Ephesians 4:32)

In the Old Testament when someone sinned, they brought a lamb to the priest, and the priest would shed its blood on the altar as payment for their sin. Once that was done the record was expunged and the issue was settled.

You say, “But I don’t feel forgiven”. Forgiveness come by faith, not feelings. As long as you live by feelings, Satan has a weapon he can use against you at every turn. You say, “But what I did was wrong”. As long as you have not committed the unpardonable sin, whatever you have done is pardonable. You say, “But Satan keeps bringing it up.” That is because he is called the “accuser”.

But notice how your overcome Satan, the accuser. Revelation 12:10 says, “They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and the word of their testimony”. The next time Satan accuses you, say, “I’m glad you brought that up”. Then tell him what the blood of Jesus has accomplished on your behalf. If you do that he will flee. Learn from the failure, grow stronger through it, use it to bless others, move on with your life and don’t condemn yourself!

1 Corinthians 4:20 says “For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power”. I am convinced that the world doesn't need more people talking about promises and change. We need to see it happen!!! The only real change I know that will revolutionize the entire world is the same change that took place with men of the Bible. How they saw real change and promises fulfilled, which only took place through a powerful encounter with God!

“The Invisible King”

The Invisible King brings light to a world riddled with questionable morality and perverse political power. Where there is darkness, the Invisible King shines as the dawn of a new day. As you crown the Invisible King lord over your life, you will experience His power and glory. As you do the enemy will up out of your house, afflictions will leave, and God's blessings will overflow.

6 PM: Encounter Prayer

Join us for Encounter Prayer as we gather to worship and seek Jesus, our Deliverer. As our Deliverer, Jesus breaks every yoke of bondage, setting the captive free. God's Word say, “He whom the Son sets free is free indeed.” Let us experience the incredible power of Jesus as He steps into our “stuff” and sets us on the road to a life more abundant!

September 28: 9 & 11 am Services “King of Kings” Part III

“The Interceding King”

In the final message of this series, Pastor will share with you about the King of Kings who is your divine advocate in heaven's court. He is continually making intercession on your behalf. He is seated on the right hand of the Father wanting a personal relationship with you as your Redeemer and Representative. Crown Him as your King and Lord over every area of your life!

6 PM: Teen Challenge Brothers Band

The Teen Challenge Brothers Band ministers in music and testimony of the incredible grace of God. God's saving and healing power is on full display as they share in story and in song. We invite you to witness them proclaim, “He that the Son has set free, is free indeed!”

"Roller Coaster Life"

Kidz Church - Sundays at 9 & 11 am and 2 pm

Roller coasters can be fun! All of the twists, turns, ups, and downs – they can be very entertaining. However, it's not always good when LIFE is like a roller coaster. One day you are riding HIGH – everything is going great. Then, all of a sudden – something terrible happens and you find yourself going from the highest HIGH to the lowest LOW.

Elijah knew all about going UP and DOWN and UP and DOWN in life. Throughout the whole experience, God proved himself to be faithful. In this series, you will walk through Elijah's "Roller Coaster Life" and learn from some of his most incredible experiences. You're going to hear how God was faithful in every moment of Elijah's life. It was amazing.

We pray that this series will help your kids always remember that even through the ups and downs of the "Roller Coaster Life", God will always be faithful!
