Moment's Reflection

Thank you for noticing

I've noticed how you make an extra special effort to invite friends and welcome visitors into our congregation. I've noticed you noticing all our visitors and friends. On my way to the pulpit Sunday, or following worship, I've noticed you greeting and talking with new people. Your generosity of spirit encourages me. Much as I love who we are, I also love the church family God is calling us to become. I'm certain that there are new people with which God wants us to join in the journey of faith.

I know that your personal and family schedules are filled with places to be and things to do, but you've taken the time to share the happiness you feel at our church with others. Bless you. You've taken the time to invite and welcome others because doing so is in your nature. But by these seemingly simple acts of kindness you've also chosen to do the important work of Christian outreach. Scripture says, "Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you." (Romans 15:7)

Each time I'm given the joy of welcoming a new member into our church family, I'm mindful that this new person has decided to join us in the journey of Christian faith because you've taken the time to invite them.

I appreciate that so many of you make a point to look up and out from your own circle of friends and family to see many others who come to worship with us. It makes my spirit feel good when you take the time to introduce me.

So, "Thank you for noticing." -Dan

PARENTS OF CHILDREN AGES 2-3RD GRADE:

We would love to have your children sing with us in the Children's Pageant this year (on Dec 4). We have a moment in the pageant for the beloved "AWAY IN A MANGER", and if your child is not participating with either the Children's Choir or the Youth Choir we would love to have them join us on stage to sing this carol. On Sunday morning there will be a time in their classes to sing through the music to help them become familiar with the melody. The night of the pageant, we will practice this song on stage at 5:30pm, so if you can have them there around 5:20pm that would be very helpful. We ask that they wear something festive for the performance, but this can be as simple as jeans and a red or green t-shirt or as fancy as they wish (though probably not tiaras!). Thanks for making this a special event!

Fusion: a merging of spirituality into real everyday life

Jesus was in a small group.

life change happens in small groups

The basic purpose of Fusion is to provide space and time to consistently connect with one another and God. Its goal is to help "fuse" (meld, unite, weave) our faith and spirituality into all aspects of our lives. This Fall, Fusion has developed into a small group ministry. We currently have two small groups that meet once a month. One group meets on Friday evenings and the other meets Saturday evenings. If you are interested in joining a small group, please let Rev. Casey know.

DIACONATE GATHERING

Sunday, December 4, 2016 (This Sunday!)
10:15 to 11:15am in the Sanctuary

Who Should Come: All current Deacons, but especially Deacons who will continue or begin terms of service in 2017

Leaders: Dr. Dan along with Current Diaconate Chair, Kim Schnitker, and incoming Diaconate Chair Denise Armstrong, and Co-Chair Elaine Roeger

The key phrase for this Sunday's meeting is SERVANT LEADERSHIP.

You may have thought you were asked only to serve Communion on Sunday mornings. Important and sacred as that work is, you were also called to be a Servant Leader in Christ's Church.

Simon Sinek describes Servant Leadership like this: "Leadership is not a rank or a position. Leadership is a service to be given."

By the manner of his life and his words, Jesus taught: "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant." (Matthew 20:26)

In this spirit of Servant Leadership, I want us to gather as Deacons to think about two things:

1. What is the scriptural origin and meaning of being a Deacon in the Church?
2. How exactly do I express my willingness to be a Deacon by serving at the Table (aka, training instructions for service at the Table).

Christmas Poinsettias

Order forms for Christmas Poinsettias available in Fellowship Hall and the Church Office. Deadline for ordering is Sunday, December 11th.
