Fall 2020

Dear Crescentonians

Another autumn is upon us and as the leaves turn their beautiful colors and remind us of the power of seasons, we are reminded that seasons come and go (at least here in the northeast!). Time passes and so do difficult times. This year has certainly been one for the books—pandemic, violence, injustice, fires, protests, anger. There is much that challenges us and yet, as we have remained faithful to Christ’s work, there has been God’s handprints all over the work here at CAPC. We are humbled by His presence.

We rejoiced when we returned to worship in our sanctuary on July 5. Protocols strictly in place, even the most trepidatious in our midst grew more comfortable and relaxed into worship. We had offered online worship and although we did not choose to do ‘virtual Communion’ it made our Communion all the more blessed when we could return to the table as God’s people, present and in community.

Our mission work did not stumble and we actually added a day to Soup Kitchen servings at the height of the pandemic. Donations from the community poured in as people trusted us with their offerings that we would dedicate those funds to serving the poor (a growing number in these days), and we did. People shared their gratitude and it was a comfort to know that families had a full meal at least one or two days in the week, and were able to take some food home for later. Our mission partners distributed groceries each month as well and we distributed bag lunches on the weekdays we were not serving a full meal. In addition, we partnered with other food distribution channels to broaden our outreach and the United Way reached out to us to be a point of distribution as well.

With fewer people in the building, we are using the time to continue renovation projects. Stonework continues in the front and we are not ceasing to work to resolve the leak in the kitchen and choir area (session notes from years and years ago shared their struggle with this same issue). We are committed to resolving this at this time so future generations can focus on other projects. The county has provided funds for repaving and we hope to have the first of the phases completed this fall.

There has been tremendous outpouring from the congregation in the way of phone calls, emails, cards and more to reach out to everyone to let them know that the epidemic may keep some of us apart but we are never far apart from God’s love. I hope you feel that as well and know that near or far, you remain a Crescentonian and, even more importantly, a child of God—deeply loved, called to service, blessed abundantly and forever home.

Pastor Lynn

CAPC Highlights...

Here are just some of the news from the pews to keep you up on all things Crescent!

- Paving Project – With a grant from the county we are proceeding with receiving bids from contractors to pave our side parking lot. This includes the staff parking lot area up to the Assembly Room and the rest of the small parking area right next to the building. Future projects will include the Swain parking lot and First Place parking lot areas as well. We are just learning how to navigate this process and we are proceeding (and learning) at a good pace! Will keep you posted as to when the paving actually begins (we are expecting late October or early November).
- We're not giving up!! We, too, see the water damage in the kitchen and we know this problem has been with us literally for decades! We will not stop until we get this repaired. A contractor came out to analyze the problem and developed a proposal for repair. We are hopeful that this will fix the problem. Work is to begin in October, so stay tuned! Once the roofing problem is fixed we will look to replaster in the kitchen and repair the choir room area as well.
- In August we said farewell to Kennedy Coleman who served as our Office Administrator for about a year. Kennedy is off to grad school in Georgia and we wish her well! We have not yet filled this position so if you know of anyone who might be interested, we are beginning the search for candidates. Until then, please bear with us (especially Pastor Lynn) as we cover her duties until we discover who God is calling to serve in our midst next! The office hours are still 8 am until noon and people can call the office or stop in. Fridays are a little 'iffy' because they are Pastor Lynn's day off.
- We started back in worship on July 5 and are so excited to be able to worship as a community. We are following strict protocols and everyone attending (at least that I know of) reports feeling VERY safe in gathering. We hope you will as well and consider worshipping with us again (if you are not already doing so). Especially in these difficult days, we hope you will feel encouraged by God's love and the presence and power of community that flows through this church!
- We will be organizing clean out days soon as we want to spruce up the boiler room and adjacent storage area as well as the storage area on the stairs leading to the basement. Stay tuned and see if you will be able to help in this important work! As soon as dates are announced we will let you know. Emily Upton is heading up the effort to clean out and organize files so if you'd like to help her, please let her know.
- Valarie's Soup Kitchen continues with its tremendous work under the guidance of Chef Kevin Cook and Pat Fleming. Outside organizations have come to provide health information (Mayor's Health Outreach program); voting registration (Tri-Fold Ministries); census takers, etc. In addition, we have received generous donations to this worthy cause and grant work continues to ensure this remains a sustainable mission. Thank you to all of our amazing volunteers and especially Chef Kevin!

Congratulations and many blessings!

(Re-) Opening Day!

The morning of July 5th, 2020, brought tears of joy to Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church worshippers. After a mournful almost four months away from each other, CAPC once again opened its doors, welcoming faithful bodies, renewed spirits and a powerful witness to God's promise to never leave us. Beautiful flowers given by Session brought cheerful color to the chancel where, once again, we basked in the light shining through our beautiful stained glass windows. Pastor Lynn's powerful message, Cameron's moving music and seeing each other again face to face (albeit, mask to mask) reminded us of God's love for us and our love for each other as sisters and brothers in Christ.

The reopening came to fruition through the work of the CAPC re-opening committee, who discussed CDC and Presbytery guidelines while considering the needs of our congregation. Worship guidelines were disseminated to members and friends prior to opening day and were also published in the bulletin. Signs welcomed worshippers and also alerted everyone to safety protocols. Temperatures were taken upon entering, a hand sanitizer station was put to use and greeters reminded all to maintain social distancing of 6 feet "or get noodle" with a six foot pool noodle (also on display to demonstrate proper distancing). To celebrate re-opening and the July 4th holiday, gift boxes containing sanitizer, goodies and a mask were given out. Our amazing carpenter/handyman Tom Rowe donated 60 lovely cloth masks sewn by his wife.

After recognizing those who had helped keep things going during our pandemic closure, Session recognized and thanked Pastor Lynn for her tireless hard work to keep us connected and afloat. She was presented with a Barnes and Noble gift card, a book of puns, jokes and riddles and also a limerick.

"There once was a Pastor named Lynn

Who came to dissuade us from sin.

Along came a virus

Yet she continued to inspire us

And keep us together as kin."

We returned to worship with serious protocols in place—but with our sense of humor intact as well!

Worship, Music & the Arts

We have been blessed since the beginning of July to once again worship in our beloved sanctuary. Other than everyone wearing masks and observing medical protocols, our regular worship service is a welcome oasis in the midst of these uncertain times.

Throughout the summer, various soloists have provided glorious music both at the prelude and during the offering time. Beginning in September we have been graced by a quartet consisting of our music director, Cameron Kuzepski; Drude and Glen Crane; plus our guest soprano (and sometimes our soloist) Kethrellan Peterson.

On September 13th., the teachers who will be teaching in the coming year, were commissioned. Gathered around the baptismal font, Pastor Lynn led a commissioning liturgy for the following: Pat Baker, Janice Haer, Chrystal McArthur, and Director of Children's Ministry Stephanie DeGeneste.

Everyone who was present at this September 13th. service received a key ring wood dove. It was to remind us of the Romans 12 scripture Pastor Lynn preached on and accompanied by the following statement and question.

*Dove - a symbol of the Holy Spirit as a remembrance that you are gifted and called to serve.
Each of us are gifted by the Holy Spirit.
How are you using yours?*

Between now and the beginning of Advent, there will be other special services. As always, we will celebrate World Communion Sunday which is always the first Sunday of October. Other special Sundays will include Reformation Sunday, All Saints Sunday, Thanksgiving Sunday, and culminating the liturgical year - Christ the King Sunday. However, every Sunday is special when you are able to worship with us in person. If you are not able to join us, worship packets are still available on our website: crescentonline.org.

Perhaps you have noticed a new category in our prayer concerns: Joys and Thanksgiving. We would love to hear of the joys that have occurred in your life so we may all corporately as the body of Christ rejoice with you and give thanks. Submit these joys and thanksgivings by either calling the church office or emailing Pastor Lynn.

May all your worship, whether in our sanctuary or online, be a blessing in your life and bring glory to God.

Mindful of the Protocols for Worship

You may be wondering (if you haven't returned to worship just yet) what are the protocols we have in place as we gather for worship? They are listed below. We are still posting worship packets for those wishing to worship from home and hope they are a blessing to you. The weekly bulletin is also posted online so you can see what is happening on campus. Finally, we are posting sermons online so you can 'listen in' to the sermon. How you choose to worship we know is a very personal decision, but we hope you will find something to meet your needs.

For Worship

We are eager to return to worship, though we may have feelings of anxiousness. There are guidelines that we would like to ensure remain in place as we return to worship to guarantee everyone's well being and safety. Below you will see some of the protocols that we will be enforcing for the duration of COVID-19.

- We are blessed to have such a large space to worship in, we ask that you maintain a social distance of at least 6 feet from one another. Families may worship together.
- Please wear a face covering at all times while on campus.
- Around the sanctuary you will see resources that may be useful to you, such as disinfecting wipes, gloves, and hand sanitizing stations. All of these are for you to use!
- We ask that you enter through the Narthex and exit through the church house. Please follow the traffic flow so we can ensure everyone maintains social distancing while moving about the sanctuary. As you leave, please dispose of any items in the receptacle provided. There is also hand sanitizer available for a last shot before you leave.
- Restrooms are available, though we are trying to limit the usage of those facilities in efforts to stop the spread of COVID-19.

Online Bulletins and Worship Packets are available online at: crescentonline.org

Have we forgotten anything? Please let us know. Contact the church office at 908.756.2468 or email Pastor Lynn at lsantulli67@gmail.com

Dear Friends in Christ, Over the past few months we have all undergone many trials, though we somehow prevail. Much like the church. As director of music it is my privilege to work alongside many great musicians in the CAPC Chancel Choir. Though, throughout the past several months, I have lost that ability. Due to the many protocols that we need to follow as a congregation, we are not able to permit the CAPC Chancel Choir to sing together. Though we are allowed and are happy to have a number of guest artists come through our doors and offer their musical abilities for us to praise the Lord.

Throughout the months of July, and August we had a number of spectacular musicians give their time to lead our music in worship, the names of those musicians include: Emily Meakin, Andrew Walton, Sarah Ragan, Gus Mercante, Andrea Nestman, Kethrellan Peterson, Kim and Phill Doucette, and Cicilia Tucker-Myers. We ask that you remember them in your prayers of thanks and well-being.

Going forward, we have been graced with the ability to have a quartet for Sunday services. They will offer many different styles of music, from the renaissance era, to the contemporary anthems, and everything in between. We hope that they will enhance your prayer life within the walls of Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The works of the Lord are wonderful indeed. Let us offer back to God a portion of what has been given to us, for the glory of God's name.

Cameron J. S. Kuzepski, FGMS

Director of Music

Greetings from the Congregational Care Committee! It has certainly been quite the strange time for our church family, the country, and the world, but we are getting through it the best we can, and will hopefully come out the other side stronger, closer, and more faithful as a community.

While we may be a strong faith community, that community is still made up of individuals, and individuals can sometimes feel lonely or be struggling in one way or another. This feeling can certainly be exacerbated by the larger community around us, and compound that with a Global Pandemic, Social Injustices, and Isolation. We hope that together as a community we can help build up individuals and offer support, a prayer, and God's love.

We offer this through a personal card just to let you know that someone is thinking about you, a phone call just to check in, an email to pop up and say hello. There are so many simple ways to strengthen our community.

If isolation, anxiety, economic uncertainty, and the daily onslaught of bad news generated by the coronavirus pandemic are taking a heavy toll on your mood, you're not alone. Please reach out to someone. So many of us are feeling the stress of social isolation, the worry about jobs, money, and health, and the profound feelings of loss that many of us are experiencing at the moment.

If you or someone you know in our faith community is struggling and needs someone to talk to please reach out to either Pastor Lynn (908-756-2468) or the Congregational Care Committee through Laura Mann (Lemann1229@gmail.com 908-872-9203). We are here to come together and build each other up.

Finance & Stewardship

As we enter into Autumn, we continue to have much to be grateful for. We have been able to start worshipping together again as we have new protocols to protect each other. Our food ministries continue to provide nutritious food for those in need and we have received several more grants to support this mission into the future. We have continued support through our offerings and the budgeted operations of Crescent. The Payroll Protection Program money that we received will allow us to reduce our budgeted deficit for the year and reduce the pull of Endowment Fund money to fund our operating loss.

Valarie's Soup Kitchen News

In preparation for cold weather we have begun serving guests outside the Assembly Room door, rather than the organ door. This allows us to keep the food warmer because it is closer to the kitchen and also allows the volunteers to keep an eye on the line and see when replenishment of the hot meals is required. It is saving us a lot of back and forth time as well.

Tape has been put on the staff parking driveway to indicate direction in and out and where each guest is to wait before approaching the table for service. Plans are for Tom Rowe to construct something with PVC pipes and shower curtains to separate the guests waiting for service and those leaving after getting their food.

We are looking into a tent/canopy set up to cover the serving tables for inclement weather, as we have been blessed with sunny, temperate days thus far. There will still be a gap between the steps and the tables and it will be necessary to prop the Assembly Room doors open when the weather gets colder, rather than having them fully open as we have them now. Chef Kevin has suggested that perhaps a curtain could be put across the door to the outside to keep the cold out and the heat in and we will also close the doors to the hallway to keep cold air from getting into the rest of the church.

We may need to purchase an additional warmer (the enclosed appliance with trays that we currently use in the kitchen) to stage near the Assembly Room door so that food can be kept warm as long as possible before being put outside. We are considering how or if we can offer coffee and hot beverages during cold weather since the hot beverage set up and service was a bottle neck when we served inside due to the necessity of guests having to add sugar, milk, etc. to customize the coffee to their tastes. We are currently only serving water and cold beverages.

Through my contact with Summit Animal Rescue (SARA) we are now getting some desserts and pastries from the Stop and Shop in Berkeley Heights. These items are delivered to my house on Sunday afternoons and I bring them to CAPC on Monday or Tuesday.

Suggestions for letting guests in a few at a time to eat and then leave before another group was let in were not practical as getting people to leave when the weather is cold or inclement would be difficult to enforce and sanitation between groups would be an issue.

Janet Ramsey and I continue to do the shopping for the bag lunch supplies and Emily Upton has been our faithful bag packer and advisor of when inventories of bag supplies are low.

Tommy, a faithful guest who was also a helper in overseeing the clothing table when we were inside and overseeing the food table at the organ door passed away suddenly at the end of July. We only knew him as Tommy, always a gentleman and always ready to help wherever and whenever needed, but we wanted his family to know how much he was liked and respected and would be missed. With the efforts of Jo-Ann Bandomer we were able to locate his family and took up a collection from the volunteers, past and present, and were able to give his family a card with $550 in it.

On Tuesday, September 15th Andre McIntyre arranged for representatives to be on site during VSK food service to offer voter registration assistance to our guests. Eight new voters were registered.

We continue to have an affable and fun group of volunteers on Tuesdays who work well together and somehow get the food out under the direction of Chef Kevin. These volunteers are: Janet Ramsey, Sherrie Granger, Rich Mirocco, Mary Clair Givelber, Barbara Ridzy, Joanne Macaluso, and me; in July/August we had volunteers from Kevin's church in Dunellen, Karen and her daughter, Gabriella, as well as 2 teens, Giancarlo and Steven. The Costco Pickup Team is also an essential part of VSK. They are: Gary Mann, Joan Van Pelt, Jo-Ann Bandomer, Emily Upton and Darcella Sessomes.

Thank you to all volunteers! Without you, there would be no Valarie's Soup Kitchen.

Mission and Outreach

On Tuesday, September 15th, volunteers from Tri-Fold Ministries - Women's Table, set up a table during the hours of the VSK soup kitchen allowing the public to complete their voting registration application. Led by Reverend Miriam Shaw, they were able to bring this important mission directly to the people on the street register 8 new voters. Just an example of the work of committee to assist Plainfield community!

Thank you to Williamson Realty in Green Brook for your donation to CAPC's Valarie's Soup Kitchen. Your support is greatly appreciated!

Membership and Evangelism

We hope you are enjoying our FaceBook posts! Please remember to like and share. This is a great and easy way to support and publicize CAPC. On our website, crescentonline.org, you can find audio of past sermons, the weekly worship packet and the current Sunday Bulletin as well as much other information. And remember, there is a “Donate now” button which makes your financial support easy and secure.

The committee recently created and handed out CAPC bookmarks to Sunday School students to be used with the Bibles they were given by the Sunday School.

Do you miss seeing our entire congregation “up close and personal” during these times? We do too! So we have decided to assemble a virtual “Passing of the Peace” which we hope you will ALL participate in. Just have someone take a short video you waving to the camera or take a selfie of yourself doing so. Families can do it all as one. Send your video to BJ Snyder by email (dillyanwen@aol.com). If you need help, or cannot do the video yourself, fear not! We are here to help, just let BJ know. (You can also text or call me at 908-229-6808.)

Look forward in the near future for information regarding another tasty project you may enjoy. (Hint, hint!)

Jack Shuster turned 95!

We love you Jack!

Sunday School...Zooming Right Along in 2020-2021

Saturday, September 12th couldn't have been a more fabulous weather day for the planned Sunday School drive by event. The members of the Sunday School team, Pat Baker, Janice Haer, Chrystal McArthur and I, were fired up and ready to roll. The idea behind our drive by event was to reconnect with students we hadn't seen all summer and give them a bag filled with goodies to introduce them to the 2020-2021 program year theme, Growing in God's Love. Thanks to an idea from the Evangelism and Outreach committee and Pastor Lynn's creativity we had beautiful bookmarks, on which we wrote a personalized message on the back, to accompany the Growing in God's Love story Bible, journal notebooks, and snacks for the goodie bag we were going to give away. Chrystal McArthur made some very colorful signs to use in the parking lot, signs that have now been repurposed for our hallway bulletin board, to welcome our students.

The McIntyre family arrived by car and Wendy arrived on foot to Crescent's parking lot on First Place where we were waiting to welcome everyone. The first thing Pat and I noticed is how much Nina, Xavier, and Wendy had grown over the summer. Pastor Lynn joined us out in the parking lot and we all had such a nice time getting reconnected. Seeing students in person after spring Zoom Sunday School classes due to Covid-19 and the usual summer hiatus was so wonderful. Hearing their voices was like music to our ears.

Our Sunday School team was commissioned during Sunday's worship service. After service we all rushed home to ensure we were in place for our kick off Sunday School lesson. While previous commitments prevented a number of our students from being on the 12:30 Zoom call, Wendy was there and she enthusiastically participated in the lesson. Our aims were to get to know each other a little better and get to know a little bit about our new curriculum. We all shared something that happened over the summer that made us happy. What an interesting exchange of information occurred among us! The teachers previewed the first unit of our new curriculum which is called Brave Women and Men in the Bible. The PCUSA materials that we will be utilizing this year are highly interactive for the students and also contain components to help families engage their children in their spiritual formation. The first five lessons will cover stories about Abraham and Isaac, Miriam, Samuel, a courageous woman, and the three Hebrew boys. With each lesson students will read and hear stories from the Bible, pause to let each story find its way into their hearts and minds, engage their curiosity and imagination with the Bible story through wondering questions and activities exploring God's presence, and wrestle with how they fit in the story as they seek to discover what God is calling them to do. Our verse for the year is actually the prayer of Janice's, Pat's, Chrystal's and my heart regarding our students, "May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance." ~ II Thessalonians 3:5.

While issues related to Covid-19 still make it a wiser course of action to hold Zoom Sunday School classes, our department had a great kick off weekend and we feel we're already zooming right along to a program year that will bring righteous results for our students, their families, and our church as we all do things to ensure we're growing in God's love.

Camp Johnsonburg Comes to CAPC Sunday School Students

I wonder how many Camp Johnsonburg campers were totally disappointed when the camp's May website announcement stated that they would not be hosting summer camp on the camp grounds. For the last few years a number of CAPC Sunday School students who achieved faithful attendance at Sunday School, i.e. 80% or higher, received full scholarships to Camp Johnsonburg. The congregation delighted in hearing Xavier and Nina McIntyre and McRae and Wendy Nkellefack report about their camp experiences during a September Children's Message time slot. This year Covid-19 co-opted camp in its usual form, but that did not stop the creative staff of Camp Johnsonburg from providing a unique camp experience. They offered a creative alternative that worked out wonderfully for CAPC's SS students.

The Camp Johnsonburg website touted that #jburg 2U was going to be camp-in-a-box for all ages featuring "fun camp swag, recipes for easy ice cream and campfire snacks, crafts, discussion starters, prayer activities, and so much more." That sounded pretty cool. Because the Education & Discipleship committee was so impressed with the way our SS students finished out the 2019-2020 SS program year despite all the Covid-19 related challenges, and we also realized the summer of 2020 might be quite unusual, we decided to purchase the Camp Johnsonburg kits for all our students. The kits were a hit as you can see from the photos that accompany this article. Here is a quote from BJ Snyder, "Getting the Camp Johnsonburg packet was quite exciting for me and my three grandsons. Such a wonderful surprise! It was chock full of great items and activities, which were both fun and meaningful. The first activity we tackled was the ice cream, which was surprisingly easy and tasty! All three boys, 2, 3 1/2 and 6 1/2 years old, were able to take part. We also enjoyed the finger maze- quite relaxing. But perhaps even more meaningful than getting the packet, was the thought conveyed to students that they are thought of, cared about and loved by their church during this time apart. Thank you CAPC." Donna Amah said in a recent text, "Immediately when the kids received their gift package, they were so excited. My daughter Divya opened it and called her brother to join her. She just couldn't wait to enjoy it. She sat on the floor and assembled it. I was very excited myself to see her so involved. Thank you."

We know that our God is a wonderful Waymaker. When our students with faithful attendance, Nina McIntyre (84%) and Wendy Nkellefack (97%) couldn't go to camp, Camp Johnsonburg not only came to them, but because of the economical price of #jburg2U, all CAPC families with Sunday School students were blessed to receive one of the kits. The Education & Discipleship committee was overjoyed to provide this experience for the children.

CAPC Director of Music entails many duties but we never expected this one! It truly is a 'noteworthy' accomplishment. Thank you Cameron for the beautiful job painting the music room, complete with special quotes.

Zoom Meetings – Help Keep Us in Touch!

The Heart of Christian Faith

Wednesday evenings at 7 pm on Zoom we explore theology guided by theologian and author Alistair McGrath. No previous experience required, just a desire to explore what we believe and why and lift questions for reflection. Let Pastor Lynn know you would like to be included. She will let you know what materials are required. Fellowship and laughter? Well, those are just a couple of the side benefits.

In the News...from the Pews

Thursdays at noon we gather to discuss current events. Grab a drink from the comfort of your own home or office and join in the conversation (or just listen in). Contact Pastor Lynn at mlsantulli67@gmail.com and you will be forwarded the link

When
heartache grief sorrow despair
when suffering overwhelms and envelops your heart...
the Holy Spirit whispers softly,
tenderly
"Endure. Endure.
I have prepared a place in your heart for hope."

The same God who brought the Israelites up from the bondage of slavery to the wilderness at Sinai...
This same God will bring you up too from your wilderness bondage of suffering
as He did for the Israelites... by lifting you up
as on wings of eagles... and give you a character of endurance.

For the Holy Spirit Place of Love... prepared in your heart by the One who was Suffering itself and willingly gave up His Life
to give you yours...
This Holy Spirit Place of Love
will give you hope...
born from your suffering enduring character...
A hope rooted in God.
A hope rooted in Jesus.
A hope rooted in Love.

Thus when we are filled with the Holy Spirit of Hope
we will, as the people of God,
the beloved sheep of His pasture... we will eagerly desire to enter His gates and courts
with thanksgiving and praise to worship Him joyfully with gladness and singing...
because of this Holy Spirit gift called Hope.

Hope.
A beginning. An end.
An end. A beginning.
Given. In. Love.

At CAPC we love to welcome you to worship! Yes, we are keeping our safe distances (unlike our little quoddy friend below) and we have strong health and safety protocols in place (including taking temperatures), BUT we hope you will find your time with us just as warm and inviting! Come and join us for music that moves the soul, sermons that speak to the heart in a sanctuary that lifts your spirits. Worship each Sunday at 10:30 am (prelude begins at 10:15 am).
Come, let us gather in God's house for worship
