A large rectangular image with a dark blue background showing a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow that reflects on the water's surface. The sky is a deep blue. Overlaid on this image is the text '4 When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do.'" in a large, white, bold, sans-serif font. The text is centered and spans most of the width of the image.

A photograph of a sunset over a body of water. The sky is a mix of purple, blue, and orange. The water reflects the colors of the sky. In the foreground, there is a grain pile, which is a large, rounded mound of grain, likely wheat or barley, that has been harvested. The grain pile is in the center of the frame, and it is the focus of the scene. The text is overlaid on the image, and it is white with a black outline, making it stand out against the background.

12 For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him,

13 for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

14 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard?

And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"
