

Sermon Notes

March 17, 2019

“It’s Always the Third Day”

Luke 14:31-35

1. Within this short discourse is a magnificent simile of Jesus’ love.
2. God’s love does not protect us from all the threats and ravages of this world.
3. We are threatened and harmed, not only by outside forces, but by our own decisions.