give generously and cheerfully to this effort as we seek to make additional improvements to the sanctuary. The next change you will notice will be a glass preaching lectern and matching communion table. These items will help give the sanctuary a more modern look.

We are beginning our search for a Musical and Fine Arts Director. The position description will be made available upon request. If you are aware of qualified individuals please direct them to the church website for more information.

Finally, we encourage all of you to attend the upcoming spring revival. It is sure to be two nights of powerful preaching leading into our celebration of the union between pastoral family and congregation. We deeply appreciate the love and encouragement you have given thus far.
