Missions Spotlight

They write the following for us to pray... "Russia is placing into law pretending it has to do with terrorism but the fact is it is a way to take the Russian people back into the darkness of communism, doing away with Christianity and even worse. This law will force the churches back to horrible times. This law broadly expands the state's powers, tightening the controls placed on citizens and limiting the civil rights guaranteed by the Russian Constitution. Russia's authorities will gain power to access every single telephone conversation and email that crosses it's telecommunication lines. Any kind of missionary work will now be restricted to specially designated areas. The fines for violating these new regulations can reach 1 million rubies. Any religious preaching or acts done outside of church premises would now be treated as missionary activities." Please continue to pray for Evelyn's health.
