RESIDENT OF THE MONTH KEN ABBOTT

Ken was born in Joliet, Illinois on November 21, 1943, and he and his mom and brother Richard lived at his grandfather and grandmother's house while his soldier dad was fighting in Germany during World War II. Later, the family moved to Colorado Springs, where his dad worked as a stone mason on the new Air Force Academy, as well as doing repairs on the duplexes he managed with Ken's mom. Ken had fun romping with a white lab named "Diamond," playing cowboys and Indians with his brother, and riding horses every summer at church camp. He learned to play the tenor saxophone and to tap dance. He also enjoyed ice skating at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. His biggest thrill was driving up Pikes Peak with his dad and Uncle James. "On the way up it rained, hailed and snowed. This was in the middle of July when it was 93 degrees in Colorado Springs, and when we got to the top of Pikes Peak it was cloudy and 52 degrees."

He was nicknamed "Abbott" after the delightful Abbott and Costello comedy show, although he found it embarrassing when people would yell, "Hey, Abbott!"

His best friend was Frank, who shared Ken's love for electronics, and together they built amplifier and radio kits. A favorite memory Ken shared was driving up and down the streets in Frank's Ford Galaxy, as they both flew kites out the windows. He spent lots of weekends at Frank's house. "We both loved classical and Rock 'N Roll music."

Ken and Frank joined the US Army on the "Buddy Plan" in 1964. This guaranteed that they would be in the same company in Basic Training and Signal School. They went to Ft. Gordon, Georgia, and learned to repair radios in helicopters and light aircraft. He was then stationed at Ft. Bragg, North Carolina in Heavy Artillery. While there he re-enlisted and was sent to Ft. Sheridan, Illinois, where he worked in Medical Supply, then served in Ft. Richardson, Alaska. In 1965 he was ordered to Ft. Hood, Texas, where he trained and deployed for duty in Vietnam, serving as a Supply Specialist. He proudly served for five years, attaining the rank of SPS Specialist 5th Class.

Ken has always enjoyed electronics. He took an audio home course from DeVry Institute, and built an oscilloscope, four-channel amplifier and FM tuner. He lists his dream job as "fixing computers and electronic devices."

One interesting job Ken had was as a security guard for Statesville Penitentiary in Illinois. He actually got to meet the legendary Peter, Paul and Mary, who gave a concert on site. He also met Red Foxx and Debbie Reynolds while working in Las Vegas.

Ken feels that the inauguration of John F. Kennedy is the most significant political event in his lifetime, and if he could meet any historical figure, he "would have liked to meet John F. Kennedy and Abraham Lincoln for their courage." Other than the present time, Ken "would have liked to stay living in the 60's," but he loves living in the present. "I love Montana," he says.

Ken enjoys spending time with his niece and granddaughters, great-granddaughters and great-grandson. His favorite holiday is Thanksgiving, and his favorite place to visit is the mountains. He enjoys watching movies and listening to classical music, and talking with people.

He is fun to visit with, so stop by Sapphire and say hi!

SPOTLIGHT ON OUR STAFF JERRY CANTU—ASSISTED LIVING

I was born on September 20, 1986 in Burley, Idaho. I grew up in Idaho going with Grandpa and Grandma driving truck on the potato farms. When I was seven, my dad moved our family to Utah. I went to Highland High School, where I played varsity basketball. At the age of 18 I joined the Marine Corps. It was the greatest decision I had ever made to become a patriot. After four years of travel, I settled in Missoula, Montana. I met my wife from Hamilton. I moved down here in 2010. I started at Sapphire in October 2014. I've grown as a man and as a caregiver from the guidance of people above me and around me. Working at Sapphire has given me blessings I could not count. My family and I will be forever in the debt of our Sapphire Family. I'm always down to talk with residents. Come find me in the Sapphire building.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FUN FACTS!

Corned beef and cabbage, a traditional Saint Patrick's Day staple, doesn't have anything to do with the grain corn. Instead, it's a nod to the large grains of salt that were historically used to cure meats, which were also known as "corns."

Another little-known fact from Irish lore: Leprechauns earned that gold they're guarding. According to legend, leprechauns spend their days making and mending shoes. It's hard work, so you can't blame them for being territorial about their pots of gold.

You can't attend a Saint Patrick's Day event without hearing a cry of "Erin go Bragh." What's the phrase mean? It's a corruption of the Irish Éirinn go Brách, which means roughly "Ireland Forever."

In Irish lore, Saint Patrick gets credit for driving all the snakes out of Ireland. Modern scientists suggest that the job might not have been too hard – according to the fossil record, Ireland has never been home to any snakes. Through the Ice Age, Ireland was too cold to host any reptiles, and the surrounding seas have staved off serpentine invaders ever since. Modern scholars think the "snakes" Saint Patrick drove away were likely metaphorical.

Don't be fooled by any holiday decorations showing lady leprechauns. In traditional Irish folk tales, there are no female leprechauns, only nattily attired little guys.

Although he made his mark by introducing Christianity to Ireland in the year 432, Patrick wasn't Irish himself. He was born to Roman parents in Scotland or Wales in the late fourth century.

THE GREEN HAT

When I was just a lad
of eleven or twelve,
my friend and I dabbled
where none should ever delve.

My grandfather was
a traveling salesman,
and was known to collect
many a talisman.

He had crystals, incense
and orbs from the Far East.
He had Amazon beads and braids,
fifty at least.

His collection included
bracelets and pendants
passed down by medicine men
to their descendants.

He had charms for good luck,
horseshoes and rabbits' paws,
snakeskins and teeth
from wild animal jaws.

He kept all of these
displayed neatly in a case,
and his most prized item
had its own special place.

It was a green felt hat
with a buckle of gold,
a leather band
with quail feathers in the fold.

The hat was tallish in height and very sturdy.
You could tell it was old,
though it wasn't dirty.

Only once had grandfather
taken the hat out.
He warned, "It's dangerous!"
It was, there was no doubt.

He picked it up in Delvin,
a quaint Irish town,
in a pub from a man, to see,
you had to look down.

He was sharp and clever
and knew many a trick,
but Grandpa was smart
and for deals quite slick.

They talked about luck
and how it can be gained.
The little man drank whiskey
while Grandpa just feigned.

From his travels,
Grandpa knew of the little men,
and knew of all their magic
in their fingers ten.

Grandpa got the hat
after a few hours' gab.
In the end all he did
was pay the man's bar tab.

Grandpa kept the hat close,
and when luck was needed,
he gave it a rub,
while its power he heeded.

When showing it to me
Grandpa's face was pure dread,
as he told me to never
place it on my head.

It wasn't long after that my friend came over
and gazed upon the hat,
the color of clover.

He seemed mesmerized by it,
as if in a trance.
He grabbed the hat!
To prevent him, I had no chance.

He plopped the hat on his head,
it swallowed him whole!
I heard the hollow echo
of a laughing troll.

Grandpa came in
and saw me standing by myself.
Sad, he shook his head...
and put the hat on the shelf.
