Teamwork

Being a Christian is much like playing a team sport. When we work together we are strong. But if we try to go it alone, we quickly get into trouble. We train together as we study God's Word (Acts 17:11, 2 Tim 2:15). We live together as a team, loving each other (1 John 2:9-11), praying for each other (James 5:16), and encouraging each other (Heb.10:24-25). But if we try to live life alone, our chances of defeating Satan are greatly diminished. That is the purpose of the Church—so that we can live our lives as a team, supporting each other, and not having to go it alone (Rom. 12:1-8)!

WELCOME TO ALL

We appreciate the presence of each one here today! Thank you for coming to worship and study with us.

Please participate from the heart as we praise the Lord together, study God's word, and encourage one another.

If you are a visitor to our congregation, we especially thank you for being here! As you have blessed us with your presence, we pray the assembly is a blessing to you in return.

Please complete an Attendance Card and put it in the collection plate. And,*

COME BACK SOON!

We extend our love and sympathy to the Bateman family. Melissa's other grandmother passed away Monday.

The Heart Of A Fighter

Sometimes it's so easy to feel as if you're down for the count. Alone. Face on the mat...you've been dealt one of life's toughest blows.

I've felt this way more than once. And in a daze I've heard the count, four, five, six. And something in me says, "Get up. This is no way to go out...face down...without a fight."

You've been there, too, haven't you? So, what can you do? I like to think of a little child whose heart motivates him to get up again and again, fall after fall, determined to stand again and learn to walk.

The heart of a child... That's the heart needed to handle what life throws your way. The heart enables you to stand once again in the center of the ring.

If you're on the mat, feeling alone, remember the little child. That stirring you feel is the heart of the child within you...just waiting for another chance to take on the world.

Christ understood the splendid qualities of a child's heart. Read Mark 10:13-16 or Luke 18:15-17.
