FAITH FORMATION

Easter greetings to all,

I don't know about you, but sometimes I have to read and re-read the scripture, just to try and understand it. I study the notes in the margin of my Bible, or look up commentaries by a few trusted theologians. Sometimes I ask Monsignor. Sometimes I discuss with my husband or friends. But this weekend, the readings are pretty clear. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. Just like that. Ask any child, and they will tell you what it means. But adults? Well, we tend to complicate things... A LOT! With this one, we really don't need to. If you love Jesus, you will do what he told us to do. And when he was questioned about which are the most important commandments, he gave another clear answer. He tells us in Matthew, Chapter 22, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Wow! So the whole thing depends on these two commandments. So if I don't love God with all I have and treat others the way I would like them to treat me, I am blowing it according to Jesus. Well, that should make us all stop and take a look. If I say I love God with all I have, it will show. I once heard a man say, "If you want to know how I'm doing, don't ask me, ask my wife, my children, my neighbor or my employer." In other words, our relationship with God will show in our relationships with others. I hope if you ask those closest to me, and the stranger I meet on the street, they would tell you I'm doing pretty well. Truthfully, it would depend on the day. How about your people? What would they say?

Blessings,

Melissa

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Parishioners,

The month of May is dedicated to our Blessed Mother. Please make a point to offer the daily rosary. Our families, our parish, our country are in desperate need of our prayers, and our heavenly mother is ready, willing and able to pray for and with us. Won't you join me in praying that daily rosary?

I have included a poem that I found that I would like to share with you in honor of celebrating our Blessed Mother, Mary.

Have a blessed week.

Msgr. Frank Chiodo

MAY CROWN

All early in the morning I rose to greet the day, And underneath my window I saw a Child at play. The robins were not fearful of one so mild and meek;
They lighted on His shoulder and nested at His cheek. He picked the clustering roses, the lily in its sheath,
the long-stemmed purple violets, and wove them in a wreath. And then I saw a Lady come walking in the dew;
Her robe was white as starshine,
Her mantle was deep blue. And as the Child approached her, all sweetly she knelt down and bent her head, receiving His fragrant, flowery crown.
