From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Friends,

This weekend I celebrate Mass at the annual Italian festival in downtown Des Moines.

Perhaps this is an appropriate occasion to spend a moment remembering the Italians who immigrated to this great city and founded this parish we call home.

While the parish has grown to be a microcosm of the globe with varied ethnic and cultural backgrounds, we do owe a bit of praise for those stalwart souls who laid the foundation of our parish. They willingly sacrificed greatly in order to provide a beautiful church and school for the generations that followed. We are beneficiaries of their love for our Catholic faith. Let's offer a prayer for them this weekend.

Mark your calendars;

- August outdoor movie, Aug. 26th The Case for Christ, at the grotto
- September, the fall festival
- October, hayrack ride

Thanks to our community council for coordinating these events.

Have a blessed week.

Msgr. Frank Chiodo
