FAITH FORMATION

Hello families,

With the school year well underway, I am welcoming the fall weather. How about you? I know this is a great time of year for some of us and that some are dreading the oncoming cold days of winter. This reminds me of an important principle I have tried to apply to my life lately – the idea of being in the moment. Regretting the past or fearing the future can take me out of today. The buzzword these days is mindfulness. Seems like I am hearing it all over the place! But I must admit I like it. I like the notion that I am responsible for my focus. Other people or circumstances do not have the power to control me. So often, life gives us crazy circumstances we hadn't expected. It can feel like a whirlwind is coming or going at any time, and it's easy to get caught up in it. Many times when we make decisions based on strong feeling or emotions, rather than what we know is right, we can end up on a wrong path. This can be true of minor, day to day decisions or those which hold more importance. No matter the circumstance or the feeling, doing the right thing is always the best move. I pray that we can seek truth and take right actions, no matter how it feels at the time.

Blessings to you all,

Melissa

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

My Dear People of God,

Thanks to those who have donated to the victims of Hurricane Harvey and Hurricane Irma. I provided for a second collection at some, but not all the Masses==my fault. So, if you wish to give to the victims of Irma, drop an envelope in the basket, and mark it appropriately. In that way, we will allow for all of us to respond to this important cause. Thanks

The priests are at the annual priests' workshop this coming week. Check the schedule for mass, and communion services.

Mark your calendar: Oct. 6th first Friday Fatima Mass will be at 7:00pm followed by candlelight procession. On the 13th of October marks the 100th anniversary of the last apparition of Mary to the three children of Fatima. We are planning a special Mass at 7pm followed by a candlelight outdoor procession to our fountain of Our Lady of Fatima between the rectory and the school. Join us.....

Have a blessed week.
