FAITH FORMATION

Happy Thanksgiving!

Yes, I realize the actual day has passed, but shouldn't we really be thankful and grateful every day of the year? I know I should be. Having a thankful heart makes everything in my life brighter, more joyful and more full of hope. Some friends and I share a gratitude email list every day, and I really get so much from it. We each take a turn at leading the list for one month. The leader will look up a quote, a scripture or some kind of inspirational reading, and share 3-5 things she is grateful for that day. Then we each hit "reply all" throughout the day and add our own list. By the end of the day, we have each shared with each other and stayed connected. This is such a good exercise for me because it requires me to stop and think every day about all I have to thank God for. And I love reading my friends' lists because they all contribute so much, each in different ways. Also, they remind me on days I am grumbling, to see God in all areas of my life, large and small. St. Ignatius taught us to see God all around us, especially in the every-day, sometimes mundane, aspects of our lives. Today I am grateful – for my job, my office window, and the sounds of children playing on the playground outside. I hope your list is long and your heart is full!

Blessings,

Melissa

From Msgr. Frank Chiodo

Friends,

Returning from our blessed pilgrimage to Fatima, Lourdes, Santiago De Compostla, Madrid and other sites, I want to assure you of having prayed for you at every stop. As I mentioned in my homily, Our Blessed Mother gave me a sense of what she wants relayed to you as Her special message for the parish of St. Anthony. I believe She wants you all to know that you have a Heavenly Mother who tenderly cares for you and about you. She asks us to draw close to Her and with Her, She takes us to the foot of the cross where She reminds us of the critical importance of developing a deeper and more profound trust in Jesus, the source of all mercy. In a special way I prayed for our Hispanic parishioners at Santiago De Compostla, the tomb of St. James, the greater—apostle of Jesus. The Catholic faith our Hispanics share with us was born in Spain and carried by the Spaniards to Mexico and other Latin American countries. In Spain, I prayed that the Catholic faith born in Spain will continue to develop, blossom and grow here in Iowa—to the praise and glory of God the Father.

As we prepare for another Christmas, may Mary, Our Heavenly Mother hold us all close to Her heart—and lead us to a closer walk with Her Divine Son.

We visited Lisbon, Portugal, the birthplace of St. Anthony of Padua. There I prayed at the Augustinian Monastery, where Anthony first became a monk. Our dear patron, St. Anthony, has a special love for his family here at St. Anthony parish. Remember to seek his prayers too.

God Bless you all.

Msgr. Frank Chiodo
