Receiving Direction Without Doubt

Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will He teach sinners in the way. The meek will He guide in judgment: and the meek will He teach His way. [Psalm 25:8-9]

God wants us to make right decisions, which means choices that align with His will. He has promised to give us instruction and direction so we'll know how to proceed (Psalm 32:8).

One way to discover the Lord's will is by following the previous patterns. First, make sure you have a clean heart, clear mind, surrendered will, and patient spirit. Then, add these steps: praying persistently, trusting God's promises, and receiving His peace.

Although we all want quick answers from the Lord, Scripture tells us to pray tirelessly, without giving up. I remember praying daily for six months before I received a response about one need. During this time, the Lord showed me that He'd tried to give direction earlier, but I hadn't listened. Fear of failure had been my stumblingblock. Once I surrendered my fear, He gave instructions and empowered me to obey. When we persist in prayer, God has the opportunity to draw us closer to Him and prepare us to hear His response.

Knowing and trusting in God's promises will lift us above our doubts into a place of quiet rest. We may not have an answer yet, but as we wait on Him with hopeful expectation, we'll experience His peace that surpasses all understanding (Philemon 4:7).

Scripture urges us to be persistent in prayer, trust in God's promises, and let Christ's peace rule in our hearts (Colossians 3:15). Doing so will help us find our way past confusion and receive His clear direction without doubting.

Discovering God's will is worth every effort we make and any time spent waiting.

Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Psalm 68:19

COLOSSIANS 3:12-17

MINISTER: Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

CONGREGATION: Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

MINISTER: And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

CONGREGATION: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

ALL: And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

This Week in Black History...

Nile Rodgers...

Did you know that Rodgers is best known today as the founder of the 70's group Chic and a Grammy Award-winning guitarist/producer who has worked with everyone from Quincy Jones, Michael Jackson, Madonna and countless other stars. What some may not know is that as a teenager, Rodgers was part of the The Black Panther Party for Self-Defense and was aligned with some of the group's most infamous names.

Rodgers led an interesting life before his international acclaim as a super-producer. He played in both the Sesame Street and Apollo Theater bands. After a drug-induced jam session with guitar legend Jimi Hendrix, Rodgers joined the Black Panther's Harlem branch in hopes of emulating Cuban revolutionary Che Guevara and other similar activists of the time.

Joining Rodgers in the group as a "Panther Baby" was fellow teen Jamal Joseph, who was part of the infamous "Panther 21" group accused and later acquitted of widespread bombings and attacks in New York City.

Rodgers' time in the Panthers inspired the Chic song "At Last I Am Free" after police attacked him and his associates in Central Park one night, barely escaping prison or death. Although the song doesn't explicitly reference the incident, in a 2011 interview with The Guardian, Rodgers explained the inspiration behind the track.

Rodgers and Joseph, now a filmmaker and Columbia University professor, have regularly appeared together in speaking engagements and special events related to the Panthers. Rodgers also counts Kathleen Cleaver, once the Minister of Communication and the highest ranking woman in the Black Panther Party, and Afeni Shakur, one of the Panther 21 and rapper Tupac Shakur's mother, as close friends.

To Our Health...2015 (Commit To Be Fit)

AUGUST National Immunization Awareness Month

Thought for the Week

Don't worry, just breathe. If it's meant to be it will find its way! (J. Johnson)

NATIONAL RELAXATION DAY!

Saturday, August 15th

Turn off your Blackberry? Sign off of Facebook? Don't answer your cell? There are so many ways to relax, but so little time to do so. What is National Relaxation Day?

National Relaxation Day was first celebrated as National Slacker Day in Britain in 2001 and has caught on in the United States over the past several years to promote leisure and wellness activities.

Even if you know you should take some time to RELAX, many of us don't know how. In the spirit of relaxation day, let's try to really let go and make an effort to relax this weekend.

Here are some great ways to take your mind off things:

- Get a good night's rest * Close your eyes and breathe in deeply * Stretch your body and feel your tense muscles loosen * Cook a meal and enjoy the fruit of your labor * Create a list of things you were grateful for today; it'll help you look at things in a positive light * Write a "thinking of you" card to someone you care about * Watch a nature documentary and marvel at the sheer natural beauty * Take a walk in the park and enjoy the greenery around you * Listen to smooth jazz (or your favorite) music * Go to the gym and work off your stress * Watch a funny movie * Get a massage. * Go to a yoga or Tai Chi class.
