

Saturday, March 7th
7:00 PM

Valley View Chapel 115 E. Mill Rd., Long Valley, NJ

Step into the world of first-century Christians through an imaginative performance of interactive storytelling culminating in a dramatic portrayal bringing Paul's letter to Philemon to life.

Stephen Trafton's Broadway credits include Les Misérables (Original Revival Cast) and the National Tour of The Phantom of the Opera. He has performed at many regional theatres across the country playing leading roles in shows such as Oklahoma!, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Bye Bye Birdie, Love's Labour's Lost, Romeo & Juliet, Beauty and the Beast, and many others. He received his training at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, OH. He is on staff in the Youth Ministry at Redeemer Presbyterian Church in NYC, which is under the leadership of Dr. Tim Keller. Previously, he worked with Max McLean at Fellowship for the Performing Arts. He performs Living Letters (Philippians and Colossians) at venues across the country. Currently, he lives in NYC with his wife, Juliette, their newborn son, Tadd, and their dog, Puddleglum.

- The suggested age is: Jr. High and up.
- Dessert and beverages will be served.
- A free will offering will be collected during the performance.