From the Pastor

A certain poor man owned two dogs. Both dogs had quite a hunger and a strong desire to live. Each dog had its own distinct personality. One was agitated easily consumed with having all attentions and affections focused at him. The other was a loving dog, willing to serve his owner, and content with a peaceful life. The two dogs could not coexist in the same home, they were in constant conflict. The poor man had difficulty with finding enough food to adequately nourish both dogs. He would have to choose which dog to consistently feed, knowing this would be the difference between one dog living and the other dying.

In Galatians 5:16-25, Paul teaches that each person has an inner struggle. Our flesh desires to have all the attention and is consumed with selfish desires. On the other hand, a Christian being filled by the Holy Spirit is motivated to love, serve, and be content in all situations. The inner struggle is one of dying to self and allowing the fruit of the Spirit to flow out of us. It comes down to which dog will we feed? Will we give into the flesh, or submit to the Lord and live by His standard?

Our Lunch Fellowship was very, very good. Thank you to the Hostess Team for taking care of details and serving. Thank you to all who prepared and shared the dishes. It looked like everyone had plenty to eat! I want to say a special THANK YOU to Mary Rauch. Mary did a great job of serving in our office for 9.5 years and deserves some quality time off.

Looking forward to Sunday!

Bro. Tommy
