MINISTRY ON THE MOVE

Dear Friend,

Each year we are reminded to "spring forward" as the transition from winter to spring begins to dawn upon us. There are times we must learn to "spring forward" in life, into a new season, opening ourselves up to the newness of possibilities that God has in store for us. What's holding you back from springing forward?...

As I move into this new season of my life, I am bringing forth a new ministry that is planted by God, fertilized by prayer, and cared for by the support and witness of many women living who are learning to live victoriously in all the seasons of life. It is my desire that through Sheila Bailey Ministries we will share our journeys; harvest wisdom, support and hope; become more rooted in Christ Jesus; and bear much fruit...

A TRIBUTE TO MOTHERS!

On May 10, all over our country, we paused to celebrate our mothers. Our mothers are those who adopted us, mentored us, cared for us, gave birth to us, nourished us and loved us unconditionally. At times, as children, we may take our mothers' unconditional love for granted.

I admit that I was not always the poster child for "the best son," but my mother never gave up on me or any member of our family. Granted, I also had the love and care of my father, but this is a tribute to my mother. She kept the reigns of respect, integrity, wisdom, faithfulness, and love of the Lord fastened tightly around us so that we would have all we needed to succeed. Through my mother's persistent love, devotion and guidance, I think I may be turning out all right. I continue to look to her for her wisdom and seek her love. After all, she's my mother! So on this day, I want to salute my mother, Sheila Bailey, and all mothers who love and care for their children unconditionally.

Thank you for everything.

Your Son, Emon
